

gle. To this end earnest practice has begun. The team has gone to work with a grim determination to win every other scheduled game. The games already arranged for the remainder of the season are as follows:

University of Arkansas, at Houston, October 31.

Baylor University, at Waco, November 7.

Add-Ran University, at Waco, November the 14.

Baylor University, at College Station, November 21.

University of Texas, at Austin, November 26.—Prof. Lomax in Houston Post.

The corps of cadets has been more liberal this year in its contributions to the Athletic fund than any year since 1899. A total of about $500 has been raised. The suits that were to be awarded to the company raising the largest contribution were awarded to "B" company.

The merchants of Bryan and members of the Alumni have also been liberal in their contributions. A detailed list will be published in the next issue of the Battalion.
