

Society is the mother of convention.

Circumstances alter faces.

All is not old that titters.

Let us eat, drink and be married, for tomorrow we may
"dye."

The average girl finds it much easier to get married than to keep house.

The woman who holds up a train is not necessarily a robber.

Never judge a man by the umbrella he carries; it may not be his.

It's true that clothes do not make the man, hut that's no excuse for creating a sensation by going without any.