

erary Department. Your October issue was not discovered by the Battalion editor until recently. We wish to say that we approve of the get-up of your magazine, and hope to have it among our exchanges again.

We also welcome the following exchanges: The University Medical, The Tennessee University Magazine, The Southwestern University Magazine, The Baylor Literary, The Triumvirate, The Texas Christian University Magazine, The Adjutant, The Trinitonian, The Student's Herald, The White and Blue, The Normal Record, The Rocky Mountain Collegian, The Oak, The Academy Record, The Huisache, The Mt. St. Mary's Record, The High School Record, The High School Record, The Blinn College Monthly, The Howard Payne Monthly, and The Lone Star.

A QUERY.

Do I do wrong to swear to Kate
That I am her willing slave,
And say the same to Maud and Grace,
And tell sweet Nell I crave
But her, to make my life complete?
Does this make me a knave?

Is it a sin to swear to love
But Phillis, fair and young,
And yet to hold sweet Margaret's hand
And let love loose my tongue