Most of the cadets are watching the Bryan people concerning the proposed electric railway between here and town. We hope that this line will be built, for we see no reason why it should not. Every line yet that has been built in Texas has proven a glorious success, and there can be no doubt that this line, if built, will be an immense help to both Bryan and the college.
Do not let us forget our company football games, for in so doing, we forget the College team of 1905.

A glaring notice appeared on the bulletin board during the cold spell Saturday. It was this: "Foster Hall needs wood. We are freezing." Below it was this consolation for Foster. "Preuffer is in the same fix; we do too." This cold weather is not as pleasant as a day in June if you are limited as to wood.

Company D assembled in front of Foster Hall Thursday after dinner and for the third time this year elected a football captain. Mr. Tuttle and Mr. Williams were voted on, and the results showed that Mr. Jack Williams will lead D company's team on the gridiron.

The Battalion hates to pose as a chronic kicker, but when our laundry comes home to us looking like the laundryman had forgotten himself and run our shirts through a sausage mill instead of a laundrying machine, then we rise up and say that it is time to kick.

The State legislature is in session and we hope that they can see their way clear to give the Texas A. and M. college what she asks for. In no other way could the money of the citizens of Texas be better appropriated. In helping this institution they help the State of Texas.

The K. K.'s are planning a masquerade ball to be given sometime in February. This is to be the swellest affair that the K. K.'s have so far given, which is saying much. The K. K.'s started out to make their society an organization of the first class, and they have done so. Anything that they give is a success.

We are sorry to announce the resignation of Mr. V. H. Stubbs, our late business manager. Mr. Stubbs resigned on account of his studies. Mr. Leary takes his place as business manager. He comes well fitted for the place, having served as associate business manager during the first of the term.

The "Veterans of the Lost Cause" held their first meeting, in the guard room Sunday night. Mr. G. L. Reese was elected chairman of this organization. He was called upon for a speech. He responded beautifully by saying he had rather be chairman of the "Veterans" than the highest ranking sergeant. The "Veterans" determined to have their picture in the Long Horn as large as that book can make. The picture is to be taken with the men dressed in drill shirts and campaign hats. In fact everything is to be first class. Hurrah for the "Vets!"

The Battalion learns with regret that our popular English instructor, Mr. Lomax, burnt two pair of twelve dollar trousers by putting them too near the stove. But could it be said that the professor should be arrested for "scorching."

THE K. K. DANCE.

Last Saturday night the members of the K. K. club gave the second of their regular monthly dances. For the convenience of the young ladies, the dance was given in Bryan, in the armory. The hall, though not nearly so large as our mess hall, was sufficiently large for the crowd present and was by far cosier than the mess hall would have been.

Though the thermometer was down very low, in the hall it was very pleasant. The large open fireplace was kept well filled with wood and the flames as they sparkled and shot up into the chimney shone upon a scene of much merriment.

Aside from the inconvenience in getting to and from the hall every one had a very enjoyable evening, marred, as it was to some extent by an unlucky accident which occurred to one of the visiting young ladies.

Miss Eddy of Brenham, by an unlucky chance managed to get her finger entangled in the folds of her dress in such a way as to wrench it in a very painful manner, probably fracturing the bone. Of course it necessitated her leaving the dance. Barring this accident the dance was in every way a success.

The chaperones for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. Oliver, Prof. and Mrs. Kyle.

The guests were Misses Eddy of Brenham, Bessie Herndon of Weimar, Fant of Houston, McInnis, Sadie Cavitt, Ethel Cavitt, Nellie Smith, Hattie Smith, Garth, Keeling, McConnico, Winnie Thomas, Emily Thomas, Harbers, Watkins, Robinson, Wilson, Rhodes, Sophie Hutson, Mary Hutson and Horetzky. Besides the members of the K. K. club present there were Cavitt, Hendricks Conway, George Smith, Jas. E. Platt and Prof. Whitehead.
