TENTS ORDERED FROM DALLAS.

Cadets Willing to Give President's Plan a Trial.

A number of cadets presented a petition to the President some days ago, asking that they be permitted to try his plan of living in tents. The petition was considered favorably, and two dozen tents have been ordered from Dallas. It is stated that there are more than enough volunteers to fill these, and if necessary, more tents may be ordered later. This action will remedy the crowded condition in the barracks to some extent.

A NOTE FROM THE T. C. U. PARTY.

A number of T. C. U. people came down from Waco Saturday to see the foot ball game. Among them was D. A. Shirley, assistant registrar of the college; Miss Smith, a member of the faculty and sister to our Prof. R. F. Smith; Miss Harnish, teacher of the voice; and Miss McClintock, teacher of oratory. After the game, several members of the faculty here entertained the party at dinner at the Shirley, and were in turn most agreeably entertained with music and recitations furnished by the visitors. The singing of Miss Harnish and Miss McClintock's readings were especially good and gave universal satisfaction. On leaving for home the visitors left the following note which they asked to have printed in The Battalion:

College Station, Texas, Oct. 20.—We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the many courtesies and exceedingly gracious hospitality shown our party during our short stay at College.

The T. C. U. Party.

The Bryan Eagle is starting a movement to get a cotton mill for Bryan. This is a step in the right direction. Every town with the cotton receipts of Bryan should have a cotton mill. The A. & M. College can furnish the men to run the mill whenever Bryan gets it.

C. A. Schadt and P. D. Casey, two of our assistant editors, have been detailed to make weekly visits to the professors in the interest of The Battalion. We respectfully request that news matter and announcements intended for publication be given to these cadets.
