Ross made 3 at tackle and four through guard. Utay made 2 1-2 at end; Symes 4 around end and Hamilton 1 yard around the other. Haskell's ball. A forward pass netted them 25 yards. DeWair replaced Kelley at quarter. Symes broke through and tackled Indians for a three yard loss. Cornell blocked kick, secured ball and ran 20 yards before being stopped. He would have scored but his jersey offered too good a hand hold. Utay was unable to gain. Puckett was shoved through left tackle for 4 yards, then over the line through the same place; missed easy goal. Score: 28-6.

C COMPANY II; A COMPANY 5.
"A" Company made the first touchdown and did it in a series of rushes that almost took ones breath. Connor going over for a touchdown after eleven minutes play. "A" failed to kick goal. "C" started down the field on the next kick, but was soon forced to kick. Hooker of "A" Company made a 20 yard run. Smith, "C" Company, left end, secured the ball when Martin fumbled and chased off down the field for 50 yards. It was easy to put it across from here. Roseborough made the touchdown and kicked goal. Score: "A" 5, "C" 6.

"C" kicked off. "A" soon lost the ball, and "C" was going down the field by 15 and 20 yards gains when time was called for the first half.

"A" fought hard the second half, but the quarterback kicks and forward passes of "C" Company and her own fumbles held her down to her original 5 points. Roseborough made the second touchdown, but failed to kick goal. Final score: "C" 11, "A" 5.

FRESHMAN TENNIS CLUB.
It is desired to call the attention of Freshmen to the fact that some of the members of their class are trying to form a Tennis Club. Permission to use the courts has been secured. As a net and balls have already been obtained, the expense for each member would be under five dollars. For those who already have rackets it would be considerably less. Any Freshman who is interested, whether a player or not, should see J. R. Teague or M. B. Honey as soon as possible.

NOTICE.
While the students here give The Battalion a good deal of support, we should not forget that the advertisements are the principal source of revenue. If our readers will make a point of trading with our advertisers, all of whom are reliable business men, we shall be able to put The Battalion on a more substantial basis.

COMPANY D II; COMPANY B 0.

B Company Shows Great Improvement.
"B" Company, by her good team work, kept the ball in her opponent's territory during all of the first half, and at one time advanced to the twenty yard line, but was unable to get any nearer to the goal. D Company, as usual, put up her hardest fight in the second half, making both touchdowns in this part of the game. There was less kicking than in the former company games. "B" tried the forward pass twice, failing both times to make it work. "D" stuck to straight old-fashioned ball; she made very few gains through "B's" line, which held like a stone wall. When near the goal "B" was forced to kick. Harris secured the ball and should have retained it, but it was given to "D" Company who easily scored from the spot. Huweiler, "D" Company's right end, made as much ground as the rest of his team, or more. Besides four or five 20 yard runs, he made a 65 yard run for a touchdown. Easterwood deserves special mention for securing the ball on fumbles. Stewart of "D" and Arnold of "B" also put up a fine game.

The line up:
"D" "B"
Neale C Maedgen
Cason R G Shearer
Lineburg L G Wyche
Coboline R T Hornsby
Smith L T Edsal
Huweiler R E Elliot
Collins L E Eastwood
Wessendorf R R Arnold
Stewart L H Thompson

UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL SONGS.

The Texan, the weekly of the State University, publishes a column of Football Songs, "dedicated to the student body, with the fervent hope that that body will come to life."

We perceive that the Texan realizes that it is about time for revival, and we are glad our esteemed contemporary has undertaken the task of raising a dead student body—undeniably a drawback to any college. We sympathize with the Texan, but we are unable to relate any "experiences" for its guidance. Though our student body sometimes gets sleepy, The Battalion has not yet had occasion to raise the dead to life.

The "Songs" seem to have been written with the Thanksgiving game in view. The following are good samples of poetry "as she wrote" in Austin:

Tune: "Oh, Didn't He Ramble?"
There came a team from College and it was awful green,
Or all the country Reubs, they were the worst we've ever seen.
They lost the game, they lost the cash, and nearly lost their shoes,
They only saved their "rep" because they had no "rep" to lose.

Tune: "Goodbye, Dolly Gray."
Goodbye farmers, we must leave you
Far behind us in the score,
Tho' it breaks our heart to grieve you
It will break you up much more.
See our husky bunch of athletes, they're the boys who play the game,
Skiddoo! Back to College Station! Good-bye! A. & M.
