Patronize Benson's Barber Shop

M. S. Church, '05, is on the campus again.

Come out and take part in the track athletics.

We have fine material for a good baseball team this year.

The "hare and hounds" race comes off on the 9th of March.

Benson's Campus Barber shop is the place for good work.

Miss Lucy Board of Bryan was a campus visitor part of the week.

Ask "Frenchy" Maurin if he enjoyed Miss Kidd's singing Saturday night.

Miss Nannie Lou Betts of Bryan visited friends on the campus the past week.

Mrs. Sophia Rollins of Houston is here visiting her father, Prof. Hutson, and family.

The Soph. "bug-hunters" are rooting some cuttings of fine figs and grapes for the College.

All the cadets were in excellent spirits Saturday night for some unaccountable reason. (?)

F. R. Denmon has returned to College after a two week's visit to his parents in Beaumont.

When is Referee Harrington going to have the Sophomore-Freshman rope-pulling contest come off?

Chas. A. Homeyer left Monday for his home at Burton, Texas, on account of an attack of mumps.

Miss Kidd sang two sacred hymns in chapel Sunday morning that were greatly enjoyed by every one present.

To arrive early in February a full-line of Base Ball goods, tennis racket and supplies. Haswell Book store.

Friday night, Miss Maggie McDougald, D. Co.'s sponsor, will give a skating party to the entire company at the Bryan rink.

Benson's College Barber Shop will be provided with two chairs this year. Prompt and first class work.

The Civil Engineering Department has just received several new and up-to-date instruments with which they intend to gain time and accuracy in their especial line.

Prof. Kyle has given the Sophomore "bug-hunters" permission to take rose cuttings from the campus bushes, to be rooted in the greenhouse for their individual disposition.

Miss Mamie Hutson and her friend, Miss Hettie Marks, have returned from an extended visit to relatives in Houston. The cadets are glad to see them on the campus once more.

Some Mexican musicians from Bryan were on the campus Sunday night, making some excellent music. After serenading the President, they went to the band stand where they played several good pieces. The boys enjoyed this diversity very much and hope the Mexicans will not let this be their last trip to College.

VISITORS AT COLLEGE.

The appropriation committee of the legislature visited College last Wednesday to get a close range view of the needs of this institution.

These gentlemen readily agreed that the appropriations asked by President Harrington were not a dollar above the actual needs of the college, and unhesitatingly stated that they thought his estimate far below the deficient necessities. After the statements made by this committee, we can almost consider the necessary improvements as being already in course of construction, for we are confident that, at the close of this term of the legislature, we will have been granted the appropriations asked.

The members of the committee who were here are: Messrs. P. H. Clements, W. A. Trenchman, J. C. Ralston, J. T. Curry, F. Johnson Ben Gafford, W. J. Bryan and W. C. Davis.

Sloan: "Berg, are you going to A Company's reception?"

Berg: "Ach, ya, I will go shust to please der poys."

Our Advertisements.

Our readers will notice quite a line of advertisements in this issue of our paper. A number of them are old and well known firms, but there are also quite a number of new names among them. It is hardly possible for us to say anything favorable not already known to our readers about those old advertisers, for instance, the firm "Fatty Black and Jack Daugherty." This firm and its work is so well known amongst us, that it would be like carrying water into the Brazos to say something in its favor. The liberal prices are especially commendable.

Mr. Younger's line of fine chewing tobacco is very full, in fact, it is at present more extended than ever before. If ever you are in need of any kind of chew, boys, be sure to see Mr. Younger before going elsewhere.

Ross, Bethel & Co., known to all of us as being hustlers, so it is easy to imagine that they would be sure to use their recent visit to the T. W. C. entertainment toward adding to their line of agencies. And they succeeded well, as shown by their ad.

Then there are several new firms. As the gentlemen representing them are all well known to us, we wish to say a word in their favor. In fact, we feel compelled to boost them a little because we salted them rather thoroughly for their advertisements.

Regarding "Garwood's Persimmon Beer," it is unnecessary to say anything further than to simply advise you to examine the acknowledgments added to the advertisement. Just ask those gentlemen about the "beer," they will direct you what to do.

Mr. L. P. Holloway's barber shop is "just the thing." Mr. Holloway has been compelled to post a sign at his door, saying: "Don't crowd, everybody in his turn." If ever a sign can speak, this does it.

Fish Jobson and Roberts' Orchestra has recently been employed by one of Bryan's grocery stores to play in their warehouse. Upon our questioning the owners about the effects of this, they stated that they were very well satisfied with the effect, as since that day, they had not had the least trouble with either mice or rats.

As to the dissolution notice of Messrs. Armstrong & Tucker, we can only express our sincerest regrets to see Mr. Armstrong forced to retire from the business. But we feel assured that the remaining partner, Mr. Tucker, will certainly conduct the enterprise in the old, reliable way. We have learned, but only as a rumor, that Mr. Sloan intends to join in the business. This is something very much to be wished for.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS.

At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday it was decided to change the time of the weekly meetings from 4 p. m. Sunday to 7 p. m. the same day. An interesting program has been arranged for next Sunday. Don't forget the hour, and come on time.

Sheeler: "What is a piccolo, anyhow?"

Berg: "It is an instrument somewhat like a flute."

Sheeler: "Like a flute! I thought it was something you have to pick."

Deware (in Bryan, Saturday night): "Fellows, we fixed them in great shape! Now all we have to do is to get back to College O. K."

Deware (at College Sunday night): "How in thunder de he know we left here in 'citz'?"

Fish Jobson (who was out hunting): "Mister, may I hunt on your farm?"

Farmer: "Yes, if you don't shoot."
