All of these men have given excellent satisfaction and have been steadily promoted in the lines of work in which they are engaged. The best testimonial which the college has or can receive, comes from the type of uniformly successful men which she turns out.

The Smile that Came Off.

Teacher (to little boy): Freddie Brooks, are you making faces at Nellie Lyon?

Freddie Brooks—Please teacher, no, ma'am; I was trying to smile, and my face slipped.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Superfluous.

"How old is your little sister?"

"Please, sir, it's a boy."

"Well, how old is your brother,

then?"

"It ain't my brother—it Sally Jones's."

"Sally Jones's, eh! And how old is he?"

"Please, sir, I don't know."—

The Century Magazine.

The Answer Feminine.

"How long has Mrs. Wayback been wearing her hair that way?"

"Oh, two or three years—off and on."—Credit Lost.

A Victim of Breakdowns.

He: Would you rather walk or ride there?

She: Well, I've been out in the motor car so much lately that I think I'd rather ride for a change.
