SECOND GAME

The Best of the Season.—Score was 1 to 1.

By Saturday the Austin College team was recovered from a week's traveling, and were ready to play good ball and they appeared on the field fully intending to wipe out the defeat of the previous day with an overwhelming victory while on the other hand the A. and M. team was not over confident as it had heard so much about the mighty left handed twirler Touchstone; in fact everything was favorable for a struggle long to be remembered by all present and especially the player who plays so hard to maintain the superiority of his team. The struggle was tied in a single knot during the fifth inning that could not be untied and at the end of the eleventh inning the game was called on account of darkness. On the whole it can truly be said of this game, "that team work was what counted"—no especial stars but all playing together.

AUSTIN COLLEGE VS. A. & M.

TWO GAMES, APRIL 12th AND 13th AT COLLEGE.

SCORES 9 TO 3 AND 1 TO 1

First Game is an Easy Victory for the A. and M. College.

The first game proved an easy victory for the home team. By two errors and a lucky hit Austin College was able to score three runs in the first inning, but after this they were never able to cross the home plate with another run.

The feature of the game was the heavy batting of the A. and M. team. Eleven hits, three of them being good for two bases and one for three. The visitors got four hits but were so scattered that they were of no avail against the clean field work of our champions.

Diggs and Bell composed the battery of Austin College. Huff and Wessendorf for A. and M.

"Hours, I should say," he replied rather tartly.

"Ours?" she cried, joyfully.

"Oh, George, this is so sudden."

THE ROSS VOLUNTEER HOP.

Why it Was Not Noticed in the Battalion.

By an unfortunate omission, an account of the Ross Volunteer Hop was not published in the last number of the Battalion. This was caused through a mistake on our part and was not intended as a reflection on the Ross Volunteers nor on any member of that organization. We are sorry that an account of the hop was not published.

COLLEGE AND LEAGUERS TIE IN FIRST GAME.

HOUSTON TAKES SECOND GAME

A. and M. Does Some Good Playing Against the Professionals.

In another long game Wednesday College took a spurt in the eighth and ninth and by the aid of a few hits and some errors by the leaguers, evened up the score that had been three to one since the fifth.

Spider Blakney made faces for the Houston bunch and got six strike outs but the boys tapped out eight safe ones. Briskey got two hits, one of them in deep right being good for a pass to second. Besides it brought in Speaker and Whitman in a bunch. Cooper got the visitors' other run on a hit and a bunch of errors in the fifth. Whitman the doughty centerfielder swung the stick for homers. Milligan robbed him of a pretty
