drive the first time up that would usually be good for three sacks.

Wessendorf's pegging was the talk of the crowd, not a runner stole second in the first game and only one got there in the other.
 Dutch is "blaying the blame" and is raising his batting average by jumps.

Dabney got four strike outs, four assists and gave eight hits, which is doing pretty well against the Leaguers. Spencer went in in the sixth and had the side out with only four tosses. His boys eat the pop-ups alive. Cooper got a walk and Carey a hit in the seventh, but they couldn't make a count. The game was called after the first half of the ninth on account of darkness.

In the second game Kelley walked, Moore struck out, Smith went to first on a hit through third and stole second. Milligan went out to Briskey. Kelley and Smith scored on Dutch's hit over first.

 Heweiler rolled a warm one to Briskey and ended the first spasm.
 Cooper gave one to Kelley who tossed him out at first. Carey's safe one landed him on the initial sack and Speaker homed him with a double tucker. Whitman gave Smith a chance for a pretty catch and Smith took it in. Briskey struck out and there was little more doing till the next round when we filled up the bases. Before Capp could get out of the hole Milligan crossed the plate.

Speaker laced out the first three-bagger of the season into right field and scored on Wright's bunt.
 Bivins got a hit in the sixth. In the next one Smith made a wonderful run, took in a fly back of short and nearly tore Ehlinger's glove off in killing the man going back. Kelley picked up a hot grounder in the eighth and pegged it to Ehlinger, thus cutting out another run.

 Bivins pitched good ball while he was in, but owing to a bad arm was replaced by Dabney in the sixth.

Aiken got hit accidentally and robbed Heweiler of a double play.
 Pewee puts the steam behind them.
 Our team work was good in both games and all around the boys compare very favorably with the old timers.

HOW ENGLISH SCHOOLBOYS ARE PUNISHED.

In English schools for boys the punishment is inflicted, for the most part, by the students. By way of example, the cricket captain or the football captain can give so many cuts with the cane to a player who has not done his duty.

A well-known English authority on educational matters called attention to the strange fact that "an heir to a dukedom, or actually a duke himself, may be well thrashed at Eton by an annoyed monitor, who is only a schoolfellow after all, and nobody thinks of making the slightest remonstrance." On the other hand, "the son of a village cobbler can not be given even one stroke by the headmaster of the village school, for outrageous conduct, without also seeing enough stir in the village to incline one to think that the Constitution had come to an end."

In commenting on the present situation in England, York Hope-well says, in The American Boy, that it is, always the boys themselves who resent most strongly any attempt to change the order of punishment.—The Circle.

They were in a grandstand, watching a game of baseball, on an afternoon early this week. Several members of the track squad appeared, attired in their track suits.

"I declare, she exclaimed, "those men certainly ought to wear more clothes. Look how short their pants are!"

"They wear that rig to make them run fast," he explained.

"I would run fast too, if I did not have any more on than that," was the reply.
