The Glee Club has gone to Fort Worth to attend the State Federation of Singing Societies.

Benson's College Barber Shop will be provided with two chairs this year. Prompt and first class work.

St. Evans and McMillan will buy your books, drawing instruments, etc., commencement week, so do not pack them away.

Cadet C. W. Homeyer has gone home on account of sickness. It is to be hoped that he will soon be able to return to college.

Dr. Powell has been asked to take charge of the department of acts and epistles at the Y. M. C. A. conference at Ashville next June.

The Junior Engineering classes have adopted the following yell:
X, Y, Z, dX, dY, dZ, Z.
This is math. at the A. & M. C.

Through the kindness of one of the residents of the campus, we publish in this number an article comparing Clemson College with Texas A. and M.

News has come to us that T. M. Reddell, of Aledo, was married a few days ago. While here he was a prominent "bughunter" of the "08" class. He was in charge of the feeding experiments at Clarendon last Fall. We extend to him and his "better half" our sincere congratulations.

The cattle feeding experiment at this place which was mentioned some time ago closed last Friday and the cattle and hogs are on the market at Ft. Worth this week. A slaughter test will be run on each lot having a different feed by the Ft. Worth packers. Prof. Burns will be at Ft. Worth this week directing the test. A check on this experiment will be run here next year. It will be started earlier in the season in order that the steers may have a better finish put on them before going to market.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Students tell of Their Impressions of Mr. Weatherford.

At the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday night, about forty members were present. The meeting was opened by two songs and a prayer by Mr. Ward. The purpose of the meeting was to have different ones give the impressions made upon them by the addresses of Mr. Weatherford. About ten expressed their opinions. All seem to have been impressed by the speaker's personal character, his placing before himself the high ideal—a clean life. Others said that the talks had been instrumental in their attempting to better themselves, in making them get closer to the Bible.

After discussing several business items the meeting adjourned after a prayer by Dr. Powell.

C COMPANY ENJOYS A BOX.

The reception which was to be given C Company by its sponsor Miss Hattie Lou Hudson was postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. Hudson. Rather than to disappoint the boys Miss Hudson sent them a large box containing ice cream and cake. At 8 o'clock the company assembled at the Mess Hall where the cream and cake was served in quantities to please the boys. More than once were saucers sent back to be refilled. At ten o'clock the happy crowd was forced to leave the place where they had spent several pleasant hours.

What's Fairyland?

What's Fairyland?
This yesterplace, half hid in hazy years—
This blurred and wistful memory of our fears—
A dream we lived, unheeding,
Till unkennd beauties, speeding,
Brought us this glimpse that now so fey appears,
For now we see its wonders through our tears
And understand,
That's Fairyland!
—Ridgways.
