

WAY CLEAR FOR BRICK PLANT.

Way Now Clear for Mr. John Vick to Carry Out His Plans for Organizing a Company.

Bryan Eagle:

The legislature, at the regular session, authorized the board of directors of the A. and M. College to lease thirty acres of land in the northwest corner of the College pasture, about a mile and a half from the College buildings for the purpose of establishing a brick manufacturing plant.

It will be remembered that Mr. John Vick, who is now in west Texas, is promoting this enterprise and enlisted much interest in it last year. He also sent samples of the clay to various points for testing and in each instance it proved to be very fine. Mr. Vick is now taking steps to proceed with the enterprise, and it will doubtless be secured at no distant date.

The land lies between Bryan and College Station and west of the Central railroad and will be easily accessible with a spur track or tracks. Bryan has been in need of an up-to-date brick plant for a long time, and especially so during the past few years with the amount of building that has been going on. It is also recognized that a plant here, with the railroad facilities we have, will serve a large and populous area of the state.

The Eagle wishes the utmost success for Mr. Vick in carrying out his plans.

"C" Takes One From "A."

"C" company had no trouble in taking Wednesday's game from the big boys by the safe score of 4 to 1. The heavy hitters from "A" company were not so much in evidence as in former games, and "C" now has better hitters and runners in the squad men. "A" got three hits, "C" four. Bittle went wild once or twice, but still got six strike outs to McElroy's four. Lempert and Stripling did the brotherly act in catching a high fly in flight; Lempert muffed the ball, but Stripling was just behind and took it in easy. Zanty Beall did great work at first, McElroy made a pretty stop in the fifth, cutting Robson off at first. Robson (2), English (1), Bittle (1), did the scoring for "C", and Hamilton crossed the plate for the lonesome one-spot of Company "A".

Oh! Thunder.

"See!" said Willie, "see the clouds where they are going, I wonder?"
"Well," said the captain, "since you ask, I think they are going to thunder."

WILL SUCCEED CAPT. SARGENT.

Capt. Andrew Moses to Be Our Next Commandant.

A Washington dispatch announces that Capt. Andrew Moses, of the artillery corps, United States army, has been detailed by the war department as commander of cadets and military instructor at A. and M. College of Texas, to succeed Capt. H. H. Sargent, whose several years of service will end with this term, and he will rejoin his regiment, the Second cavalry. Capt. Sargent is regarded as one of the best military instructors the College has ever had, and his successor will find in the department a high standard of efficiency.

An A. and M. Happyhammer.

The Happyhammer page of the Houston Post has the following letter from little (Ivey) Dale of the Junior class:

College, Texas.—Dear Mrs. Foster and Happyhammers: Here comes another bonnie lad to join your happy band. I try to help everybody I can and enclose five cents to you. I live near the big college here and have lots of fun watching the cadets drill. My pets are a big cat and two little white mice. I had one little white chicken, but he got wet and died. I wish some of the little Haps would swap postal cards with me. May I write again? A new Hap.
IVEY DALE.

Certainly you may write again, but please spell "Hap" with a capital letter. Read the Club Talk today.—Ed.

B COMPANY 2, C COMPANY 1.

In an interesting and hotly contested game Saturday B Company defeated C Company by the narrow margin of one score. Neither side scored until the fourth, when C Company scored a run. B Company tied the score in the fifth, and after that neither side scored until the ninth, when B Company scored the winning run. The features of the game were sensational catches by English, Filgo and Dibrell. Time of game, 1 hr. 30 min.

Struck out: By Abney 12, by Cox 11. Innings played, nine.

"A" 0, "D" 0.

In the game last Thursday, "A" and "D" both failed to score. It was the best company game seen on the campus this year. McElroy and Leo P. both pitched fine ball and were given good support by their teammates. Leo P. struck out 12 men and allowed only about three hits, while McElroy struck out about ten men and allowed about three hits.

In the first inning "A" got a man on third base but failed to score. The first three men up for "D" got out. Leo P. struck out the first three men up in the second inning.

Cobe got to first, was advanced to second by a sacrifice by Smith, but was thrown out going to third.

In the fourth inning, McElroy struck out the first three men up. In the seventh inning Sherrard got a hit and was advanced to third. Martin, who was next up, came near scoring him, but he was robbed of a hit by a pretty catch by McDaniel.

ASKED TO SPEAK.

President of A. and M. College Invited to Meeting at Lansing, Mich.

President, H. H. Harrington of the College has recently been invited to deliver an address before the American Association of Agricultural Colleges, which meets at Lansing, Mich., May 29. The date is so near the commencement occasion here that President Harrington may not be able to attend. In case he finds it possible to be away from the college here on that date, he will speak on the "Relation of the Dean to the Work of the Agricultural Colleges."

Cross as a Cat.

Children! You must not be noisy. Willie has the mumps. See the off side of his features, swollen in huge bumps. See the way he scowls and mumbles every little while. Don't go making faces at him. You might make him smile. If you wish to make him lively don't treat him any sweets. Give him cabbage slaw or lemons, or some pickled beets. He will thank you for the favor when he's no longer sick—
Thank you, if it's next December, with a paving brick. —Dallas News.

"Will you come with me to the Zoo this afternoon?"

"No, thank you, I would rather stay at home. My eldest daughter jumps like a wild goat; my youngest shrieks like a parrot, my son is as surly as a bear, my wife snaps like a dog, and my mother-in-law, who is a veritable tigress, says I am exactly like an orange-ouang, so you see I have no need to go to the Zoo to see the animals."—Pele Mele.

First Bohemian—Why don't you get yourself a new pair of trousers? The pair you have on is quite worn out.

Second Bohemian—What does it matter what one's clothes are like? My trousers may be worn out, but they cover a true and honest heart.—Sourire.

Old Gentleman (playing bacarat at the club very late)—Waiter, what's the time?

Waiter—A quarter after midnight, sir.

Old Gentleman—Great snakes! And my wife is waiting for me to come home to lunch.—Nos Loisirs.

Father (to his little daughter, running to get her lunch)—Wait a minute, I want to have two words with you.

Daughter—Well, say one quickly now; you can tell me the other tomorrow.—Nos Loisirs.

"There is a fearful lot of burglary going on in the district just now. Aren't you nervous sometimes?"

"Oh, no. But to be on the safe side, I make my mother-in-law sleep on the ground floor for the present."—Bon Vivant.

Father (after a very lively discussion in which he has had the greatest difficulty to impose silence on his unruly offspring)—I knew that I could make you be silent.

Son—I am not silent, I am asleep.—Nos Loisirs.
