CAPTAIN SARGENT'S RECEPTION TO SENIORS

Last Saturday night Captain and Mrs. Sargent tendered an ice cream supper to the Seniors in the barracks. They were invited into the dining room and needed no command to "take seats." Ice cream, cake, and strawberries in immense quantities were placed before them, and then more ice cream, strawberries, and cake. When they drew the line, finally, fearing to die of consumption, cigars were passed around. Stories by both Captain and Mrs. Sargent formed no small part of the treat.

"AGRICULTURE FOR BEGINNERS."

A Series of Articles Running in Dallas News.

Under the head of "Agriculture for Beginners," the Dallas News is publishing a series of articles from a book of this name, published by Ginn & Company. Chapter 1 takes up the study of the soil, and is divided into the following sections: "Origin of the Soil," "Tillage of the Soil," "Moisture of the Soil." The work presents the principles of agriculture in an attractive manner, and should accomplish much good in popularizing the life and work of the farmer.

Panama hats are going to be the correct thing this summer. Parks & Waldrop are showing a large and complete line of genuine hand made panamas bought direct from the importers. All the latest shapes, square, round and telescope crowns, with pearl or black bands. Prices from $5.00 up.

Chesty George Washington wishes to inform some of his dear countrymen that a study of the physical constitution of your neighbor may sometimes be beneficial, but there are other things which would contribute more to their individual and our colony's welfare.

PRESIDENT HARRINGTON ILL.

Has Been Operated on for Appendicitis.

President Harrington, who has been ill for the past two weeks with appendicitis, was operated on by Dr. Thompson of Galveston last Sunday. Though weakened by the operation, recent reports state that he is improving. Dr. J. T. Harrington of Waco, President Harrington's brother, and Dr. Gilbert are in attendance. Dr. H. M. Lanham of Waco, formerly of College, visited the patient Sunday.

The bulletin of Tuesday morning is as follows: "7 a. m.—The president's condition is good. Temperature normal. Pulse 74. Stomach better. Slept some."—Dr. Gilbert.

BASEBALL CAPTAIN ELECTED.

Tuesday evening the baseball team of 1907—Capt. Smith, Wessendorf, Ehlinger, Black, Kelley, Huesweiler, Moore, Milligan, Huff, Dabney, Bivins, and Hornsby—met in Capt. Smith's Room to elect the captain for next year's team. They elected a man who for three years has starred in both baseball and football and who has ever worked for the advancement of athletics at A. and M. Kelley is the man. He is the man for the place and the success of next year's team is assured.
