Mrs. Nagle, who has been visiting in Dallas and Hillsboro for a week or ten days, will return to her home on the campus Wednesday.

The Junior banquet has been postponed till the night of April 20 on account of the fact that several members of the class will be absent on next Saturday night the time previously set.

Hereafter the agents for the Ineeda Laundry will expect payment from all cadets when their laundry is delivered to them. If you can't have the money by the time the bundle returns, please don't send it off.

To the faculty, instructors and corps of cadets: The Ross Volunteers of The Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College request the honor of your presence at their Annual Hop, Friday evening, April 24th, nineteen hundred and eight, College Station, Texas.

Since the last number of the Battalion, Mrs. T. P. Junkin has visited Houston; Mrs. Fernier and her mother have returned to Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mrs. Hutson has returned from Houston and Mrs. Brown, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lomax, has returned to her home in Austin.

Mrs. Soape of Henderson was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Ness Saturday and Sunday. She came to visit her son, who is a student here, and to be present at the corner stone laying.

Miss Lucy Board and Miss Mattie Watkins of Bryan were on the campus Wednesday, visiting their many friends.

Prof. C. H. Alvord was elected president of the Texas creamerymen's association at a recent meeting held in Houston. It was the first of the association and the members showed much enthusiasm in the work of advancing the interests of the creamery business in the State.

The Band boys report a very pleasant time in Navasota last Friday night. They were members of a party of Bryan Elks who gave a minstrel show in Navasota Friday night. The show, the proceeds of which will go for the benefit of the national Elks convention in Dallas, was well received by a large audience. The party returned on the midnight H. & T. C.

The wedding cards of Miss Lilla Graham McInnis and Mr. William Preston Bryan, both of Bryan, Texas, have been received here and great interest is felt in this marriage in the approaching week of April. Miss McInnis has been a frequent and popular guest on the campus during the past two years, and she has many friends who wish her happiness. She is the daughter of Mr. L. L. McInnis, one of the board of directors of this college.

Miss Mattie Tabor of Bryan was out last Saturday night with the party who came out from Bryan to give a performance of the play, "Barrington Hall." The play was witnessed by a very large house and was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Davis sang pleasingly and Mrs. Webb Howell's solos were very much enjoyed by the audience, with which she is a favorite.
