

SIXTEEN MEN HONORED—PLAYERS HAVE RECEIVED THEIR T'S

The athletic council, which met at Professor Kyle's house last Monday, decided upon a new method of honoring the men who represent the champion team of the Southwest. In addition to the "T" sweaters which have been awarded heretofore, the sixteen men to whom sweaters were given, also received a gold football watch fob on the football is engraved the name of the player, the position played, "Champions of Southwest" and 0T9. The following men received their letters and the fobs: Ward, Hooker, Hohn, Cretcher, Lillard, Thompson, Brown, Barnes, Shippe, Carlin, Hamilton, Balenti, Rugel, McDonald, Leggett and Kelley.

The following men did splendid work on the team but not quite enough to make their letters: Holliday, Davis, Ellis, Taylor and Smith. These men received a fob with their names and T. A. M. C. on it.

Mr. R. Hooker was elected captain for 1910. Hooker is a very popular man in the corps and loved and esteemed by all his acquaintances. He has played tackle for three successive years and has always proved himself invincible. He was chosen as the all-Southwestern man for that position this year and will find no trouble in maintaining his reputation.

Mr. Scott Moore was elected manager for the season of 1910-11. Mr. Moore has, during the past season, faithfully performed the duties of an assistant manager and there is no doubt but that he will make a good successor to "Otto." Mr. Moore is color sergeant at the A. & M. and a very popular young man. During the baseball season of 1908-09 he made such a good showing as pitcher that many of the Southern league teams have asked him to sign up. However, he plays the game for mere sport and does not care to enter the professional ranks just yet, so all offers were turned down. The entire corps hopes that he will give us a swell schedule next year.

ANOTHER CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM.

Tuesday night the members of the athletic council and the football squad were given a treat that will long be remembered. The treat was in the form of an oyster supper and was given by the "Fin and Feather" club of Bryan, at their perfect little clubhouse. The guests reached the clubhouse about 7:30 o'clock and after enjoying a half hour of bowling and other amusements, were ushered into the dining-room. Here they were served with oysters on the half shell, oysters fried, oysters stewed and oysters in many other toothsome forms. All the necessary trimmings were there, and judging from the interest shown, each succeeding course excelled the preceding one. Speeches of welcome were made by Judge Tabor, the redoubtable Pete Sanders and others of the "Fin and Feather" club, while Professor Kyle and Coach Moran responded by thanking the members of the club.

After several hours of enjoyment, the guests prepared to return to college, each one declaring that in the association of good fellows, the "Fin and Feather" club were easily champions of the Southwest and could not be defeated.

These men have stood by old A. &

M. through thick and thin, in victory and in defeat, and not once have they wavered in their loyalty to us. We appreciate their support more than we can ever show and can only thank them sincerely.

Those who enjoyed the unequalled hospitality of the club were Professors Kyle, Campbell, Dean and Bell, and Messrs. Balenti, Barnes, Hohn, Leggett, Rugel, Ward, Thompson, Taylor, Bell, Forsgard, Cretcher, Darst, Hamilton, Moran, Smith, Scheedel, Ford, Ellis, Cochran, Chaney, Brown, Carlin, Davis, Holliday, Lillard, McDonald, Summers, Stone and Scott Moore.

Wisconsin Instructor Selects Eleven and Characterizes Page as Best End in the West.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 23.—Dr. Charles McCarthy, who has been intimately associated with football interests at Wisconsin for the last eight years, has picked his all-western team, refusing to consider any players as eligible who are not playing under conference rules.

Page is characterized as the best end in the west and Boyle as the best tackle. Wilce is given full back on account of his intercepting passes and offensive and defensive work behind a light line. His selections follow:

A REVIEW OF THE PAST FOOTBALL SEASON.

As we look back over the brilliant record made by our football team we indeed have reason to feel proud of it. We had a good team, we won the championship and we showed our appreciation of it by our loyal support, a fact which has been commented on by the whole state of Texas.

Along in the middle of September Captain Hamilton appeared on the field with his warriors. Among them were many new men and it only took practice to get together the best team in the Southwest. The old men kept dropping in until the arrival of Choc and his Fish Balenti, and then the team was complete.

Austin college, in our first game, was easily defeated to the tune of 17 to 0. They put up a plucky fight, but were outclassed.

T. C. U. came next and this is the only game in which A. & M. did not come out victorious. We were not defeated, however, the score standing 0 to 0.

Our only excuse was that, since we did not have the practice and training as we should have had, we did not play good ball.

By the next game our team had made a wonderful improvement. Upon the resignation of Catch Merriam, Assistant Coach Moran was given charge and now with Choc Kelley at quarter the team was working as one individual.

This time we were up against the Haskell Indians. After a hard-fought game the big end was given to A. & M. by the score of 15 to 0. This is the game that put confidence in everyone and we knew we had Varsity going south.

In our next game A. & M. was scored against for the first time in the season. The battle took place in Waco against Baylor. After a "nip-and-tuck" fight the first half ended with a score of 6 to 6. In the second half, however, A. & M. took the lead by a field goal and the game ended by a score of 9 to 6.

November 8 found A. & M. in Houston up against her old rival Varsity. This game was pulled off in a down-pour of rain and before the largest crowd ever gathered at West End park. It was the easiest walkover A. & M. had, resulting in a score of 23 to 0.

Oklahoma, our next victim, and the ones who defeated Varsity 50 to 0 last year, put up one of the hardest games of the season. The first half resulted in a tie of 5 to 5. But in the second half "school was out," and A. & M. piled up the total score of 14 to 5, this being the second and last time A. & M. was scored on.

The final game of the season was the annual game in Austin on Thanksgiving day. Here before the largest crowd ever seen in Austin was fought the hardest game of the season. The first half resulted in a 0 to 0 score. In five minutes after the second half had started, however, Choc went over the line for the only touchdown of the game; score 5 to 0.

In these games A. & M. scored 83 points to her opponents' 11, winning every game except one, which was a tie. This is a record to be proud of and the whole corps feels it as such.

We hold the record for the longest run, the number of field goals, and the number of men on the All-Southwestern team, there being seven men winning first place, while three more were just about on a tie with those of other schools. Every man on the team was mentioned for some particular feature of his playing.

HOOKER CAPTAIN FOR 1910—OUR GREAT TACKLE HONORED.

Roger Hooker, for three years tackle on our team and a tower of strength in the line, has been elected captain of A. & M.'s football team for the season of 1910.

Hooker has shown his playing qualities at every stage of the game. He is a good ground gainer, a brilliant defensive player, and is often seen talking to the players and putting "pep" into them. This is Hooker's first year on the All-Southwestern team.

Besides being a football star, Hooker is a track man. He has held the Southwestern record for the shot put and is also a hammer thrower and discus thrower.

We predict a brilliant career for A. & M.'s team next year under his leadership.
