Comment

The items that come under this heading were not all written by Freshmen. This issue is not supposed to be devoted entirely to our class. It will carry general comment as well, and we are thankful to some of the "old boys" for contributions to this column.

It is a known fact that about the age of sixteen years a boy undergoes a change in life, and especially is this noticeable in the voice of the youth. It is said that during this period of change in his make-up our jovial Captain and Quartermaster, P. S. Devine, contracted a severe spell of croup—the effect of which was left on his vocal cords. You have no doubt noticed this when Pat was acting Adjutant in the absence of "Polly" Krueger.

That Doieful Sound.

From whence cometh that mournful, painful "Ba-tal-i-o-o-n-s, at-tention-n-n!" Whenever this wailful sound pervades the ranks the cadets of the First and Second Battalions crane their necks and look around to ascertain who feels so sorry for the poor fellows under his charge that it makes him almost weep to call them to attention. Sh-sh! None of us knows the sympathetic hero, but there is a rumor out that Capt. Sam Burchard is the guilty one. Thex.

How many beheld on the day of St. Patrick—there stood guard, as we marched into chapel, a Dutchman on one side and a Jew on the other! Braunig and Levy were on duty as corporals of the guard.
