AGRICULTURAL PICNIC IN MAY.

The Scientific Agricultural Association held a meeting recently and elected the following officers and committees for the big bughunters' annual picnic which is going to be pulled off on the 11th of May at Dellwood Park:

President—J. S. Farmer.

Arrangements Committee—C. H. McDowell, Prof. Kyle, Prof. Harris, C. B. Moran, J. J. Brown, C. Hohn and H. Weinert.

Refreshments—J. C. Patterson, R. E. Dickson, J. Lutrick, W. S. Tolbert, McMillan and Prof. Evans.

Finance—Langston, Moser and Langdon.

Dance—G. E. Ehlinger and C. A. McEachern.

Don't fail to pay your 50 cents when the collector of your company comes around. We need the money to defray the expenses.

Barbecued meats, lemonade and ice cream, etc., etc., will be plentiful. Don't think you won't get your money's worth, for everywhere you hear the engineer say "I wish I was a bughunter for one day."

Come prepared to take part in all the stunts which are going to be pulled off.

All campus people are expected to be present.

Last, but not least, do not fail to bring your girl and let her enjoy everything and at night attend the dance with you.

"Yes, I've cut out the slang stuff," Nell was telling her latest "gentleman friend." Gee, but my talk was gettin' fierce! I'd worked up a line of fable material that had George Ade backed up the map and gaspin' for wind, but I've ditched all that now. I seen it was up to me to skitch onto another track; jammed on my emergency brakes one day and says to myself, 'You mutt, where'll you wind up if you don't slough this rough guff you're shoving across on your unprotected friends? You never will land a Johnny-boy that's got enough gray matter in his cupola, to want a real bang-up flossy lady for his kiddo instead of a skirt that palavers like a brain-storm with a busted steerin' gear.' Any girl can talk like a lady, even if she never gets closer to one than to stretch ehr neck when some swell dame buzzes past in her gas wagon. I says to your truly, 'it's time to reformate your grammar, little sister,' and you betcher sweet life I've cut the mustard."

Academy Boys Won Debate.

In the debate between high schools and academes Saturday night at the Mess Hall on the subject: "Resolved, That trade unions promote the best interests of the people at large," the negative, represented by Harrison Baker of Allen Academy and F. A. Goodsoe of Wedemeyer Academy, Belton, won over Douglass Davis and Robert Cluck of the McGregor High School.

A. & M. Men of Prominence.
