Hart, Schaffner & Marx NEW COLLEGE LINE For Young Men

Never before in the history of clothes-making have the well-dressed young men of this community been offered better clothes, livelier styles, more new and snappier features than we are now offering in the new College line, created by Hart, Schaffner & Marx, special designers of young men's clothes.

These models are expressly for young men; the fabrics specially chosen for young men; and many new features have been added which will please the critical young college and high school fellows; and dressy young business men. Fine ready made clothes like these are now the standard of quality in men's wear; no tailor can touch them under double the price. Be sure you see these before you buy.

The Home of Good Clothes for Men and Young Men

was always good for long distances, and his goal kicking a feature. In the third quarter, on a straight line buck he made thirty-five yards for a touchdown, practically running his own interference.

There was much joy shown by the crowd that witnessed the game when Vesmirovsky went in for Higginbotham. This was his first game since being injured at Houston, and he played excellently, especially in regard to punting. One of his punts went seventy yards.

Coach Mason of Tulane has a dandy team, consisting of a hard-playing bunch of boys that never give up. In W. Woodward at full he has a good player, who several times tore through A. and M.'s line for short distances. McLeod, Schwartz, C. Woodward, and Heard, all played a fine game, and did fine defensive work.

During the game there were many penalties, mostly going to A. and M. for being off-side or for holding. Only once was Tulane penalized, and for off-side.

Coach Moran used many of his substitutes, and started the game with an entirely different team from that he has been accustomed to using at kick-off.

The game was well attended, perhaps two thousand or more people being present. "Rusty" Dowell and his assistants were there, too, let us not forget, and obtained good support from the corps when yells were given.
