

Concert and Reading Presented by Mandolin Club and Mrs. Otto Ehlinger

ASSEMBLY HALL

Saturday Night, Dec. 7. General Admission 25c. Benefit for Purchase of Instruments.

MISSISSIPPI CLUB ENTERTAINS DR. AND MRS. MORGAN HOSTS

Dr. and Mrs. Hardy and Mississippi
A. and M. Football Team Guests at Delightful Reception.

On Friday evening, November 15, the Mississippi Club was at home at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Morgan in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hardy. Dr. Hardy was formerly president of the Mississippi A. and M., but is now at the head of the Baylor Female College at Belton, and the presence of himself and his charming wife on the campus was the inspiration of the reception. The spacious reception rooms looked unusually attractive in their decoration of maroon and white, the Mississippi A. and M. colors, and the color scheme was emphasized by the numerous maroon and white pennants hanging on the walls and curtains. The dining room was very lovely with red blossoms on the table and American Beauties on the buffet. In the sitting room the setting for the punch bowl was a mass of ferns and red flowers.

Mrs. A. T. Potts and Mr. Carpenter greeted the guests as they entered and introduced them to the party in the receiving line, who were Dr. and Mrs. Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. Hardy, President and Mrs. Milner, Dr. and Mrs. Bolton, Lieut. and Mrs. Levi Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgway, Mr. Lehman, Mr. Thornton, Mr. Nichols, and Mr. Woods. A pleasant incident of the evening was the presence of the Mississippi A. and M. football team and their coach, Mr. Chadwick, and these guests were included in the receiving line.

Miss Sal Walton Smith of Henderson and Miss Milner had charge of the punch bowl and were ably assisted by Mr. Steger and Mr. Lehman, while Mrs. Felker, aided by little Misses Bernardine McKnight, Bessie Chastain, Bess Spence and Mary Frances Hall, served the guests in the dining room to delicious ice cream molded in small footballs, and angel food cake. Throughout the receiving hours the college orchestra entranced the callers with popular music and added immensely to the pleasure of the occasion.

It is seldom that College has the honor of entertaining so delightful a couple as Dr. and Mrs. Hardy, who won all hearts by their affability, culture and hearty enthusiasm in all A. and M. affairs, and all who met them will look forward with eager anticipation to another visit from this distinguished educator and his wife.

On Wednesday, November 13, Miss Milner entertained the Bachelor Girls' Club in honor of her visitor, Miss Smith. After several games of six-hand euchre the hostess, assisted by her mother and Miss Mary McInnis, served a course of chocolate whip, cluny sandwiches and salted nuts. Besides the club members, the following guests were present: Mrs. Wayne Evans, Mrs. Paddock, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Templeton, Mrs. C. Evans, Mrs. Felker, Mrs. Bagley, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Potts, Miss O'Neal, Misses Betty and May Earbee Eastland, Miss Gillespie and Miss Boulware.

Saturday evening the seniors gave a very informal dance at the Gym, the guests of honor being the members of the Mississippi A. and M. football team. The music was supplied by the splendid College band and the dancers enjoyed every number to the fullest extent. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Ehlinger, Mr.

and Mrs. Moran, Misses Shearer, Smith, Caldwell, Wilson, O'Neal and Milner; Messrs. Tyree Bell, Stevens, Royer, Young, Newton, Von Rosenberg, Chinski, Waters, Bateman and Whitfield.

Mrs. Otto Ehlinger spent last week in Houston, a guest of Mrs. March Culmore.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the members of the Horticultural Society, wish to take this opportunity of expressing our sincerest appreciation and gratitude to our honorary member, Professor G. H. Blackman, for the interest, and confidence shown; and to thank him for the unique method he has chosen to encourage the work of the society through the gift of a gold medal.

We recommend that a copy of this card of thanks be published in The Battalion.

Ernest W. Laake,
Ira E. Cowart,
Ed L. Ayers,
Committee.

November 27, 1912.

That Large Sized Game Has Been Won

Big, fat turkeys have been eaten; golden-brown pumpkin and mince pies and cranberries are gone, gone, gone. The thing to do now is to "spruce up" a little. You'll be surprised to see how prosperous looking and thankful feeling that one thing will make you. Better get in line. "Everybody's Doin' it Now."

New Ties, New Shoes, New Clothes, New "Everythings"

are ready for you here. Better come and get yours now

Christmas is Coming!

BRANDON & LAWRENCE