Gridiron Dust

Southern champions next year. Oklahoma game was easy. Utay proved to be a good manager. Tualne couldn't stop us. Houston bound on November 11th. Walked over Austin College. Even Varsity wanted to play us. Sooners didn't look like a bear to us. That Everett boy was some player, eh? Expecting great things of "Hig." next year.

Ran up 41 points on old Mississippi. Nothing can stop us next year.

Couldn't "Ves" boot some? How was Beasley for forward passes? And we won from Baylor Thanksgiving.

Montgomery even pulled down those forward passes.

Put all your money on A. and M. next year.

In between halves, O you snake dance. On to Vanderbilt next season. Note how Cushman played center. Some day we will play Yale, just watch.

If.

If it hadn't rained the day before, If Bowler hadn't been limp and sore, If Miller hadn't been knocked clear out,

If we hadn't scheduled such a dern hard bout;

If the games hadn't come so thick and fast,

If we could have prospered to the very last,

If that ball hadn't touched Batey's muddy shoe,

If Hig could have kicked that field goal true,

If we hadn't wanted one more touch-down,

If the ball hadn't gone to that Kansas clown,

If we could have caught that guy on the hustle,

If the jinx hadn't come to our last home tussle,

If er—oh, shucks, if Adam hadn't tasted that cursed fruit,

It wouldn't have happened nor this to boot. (A. M.)

Campus Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ridgway, ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Felker, entertained a merry and congenial card party Tuesday evening. In the warmth and glow of the pleasant rooms the guests completely forgot the inclement weather outside and devoted themselves entirely to the zest of the game—five hundred. After much exciting playing a delicious course of chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee was served, accompanied by gay conversation, apt repartee, laughter and beautiful music, both piano and vocal. It was not till the lights "winked" that the guests realized the lateness of the hour and reluctantly took leave of this most hospitable home and the cordial hosts and hostesses of the occasion. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Richie, Mrs. Templeton, Miss O'Neill, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Leho and Miss Milner, and Messrs. McMillan, Lehman, Thornton, and Carpenter.

On Monday evening Mrs. Ehlinger gave a very pleasant card party in honor of her visitor, Mrs. Culmore. The guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Spence, Mrs. Metcalfe, Dr. and Mrs. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Bagley, Lieutenant and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Milner, and Messrs. Puryear, Smith and Cofer, after playing several games of bridge were served a delicious peach whip with fruit cake. Dr. and Mrs. Ehlinger were assisted in dispensing their gracious hospitality by Mrs. Boggs and the charming honor guest, who contributed largely to the pleasure of the evening by giving several readings with her usual skill and grace.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Spence entertained a gay house party for the Thanksgiving festivities, consisting of Misses Lallie Lammus, Blanche Lee and Virginia Spence, who was home from Milford, and Mrs. Metcalfe of San Angelo.
