OUTFITTERS FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Haven't you met the fellow who appears to have nothing of his own? The one who forever sponges on others for all his little needs. "Lend me them papers." "Got a match?" "Say, I need a clean pair of gloves," etc. He borrows everything he possibly can and is sure not to return it. He has an ever-ready excuse for his lack of necessities and it's usually a poor one. His nerve is a maximum quantity while his appreciation for your kindness is below the zero mark. You will find him everywhere; he's one of those "things." He's the "moocher."

Flies multiply more rapidly than nearly any other species of parasite. For every fly unswatted today 7,600,000,000 will be added to the fly population of College Station by September. Swat the fly!
