Y. M. C. A. TENT A SUCCESS.

Generosity of Y. M. C. A. Enables Many Worried Sweethearts and Parents to Keep in Touch With Their Brave Boys at the Front.

The letter-writing tent, supplied by our Y. M. C. A., proved an especial boon to many cadets on the hike. Some fellows have a habit of writing several letters every day, but when they arrived at camp they immediately felt at a loss without their stationery. No one thought of such a thing as taking stationery and stamps. "What carelessness!" some fellow would think. "Now, won't my girl bless me out!" But his girl did not bless him out, nor did she miss her letters. The folks at home also got their letters, some even more than usual, for, after all, stationery and stamps were plentiful at camp.

At the first meal formation, the captains informed their companies of the presence of the Y. M. C. A. letter-writing tent, and instructed them to investigate. It was found that our Y. M. C. A. had, at their own expense, fitted out the tent with tables and chairs and writing materials. Not only was the ink and stationery to be had in this tent, but it was free to everyone. By night the tent was finally established as the Camp Hutchins Postoffice. Letters were written and mailed, and letters were received at the Y. M. C. A. tent.

We may well appreciate the actions of Mr. Steger in the establishment of this tent, for we all know how hard pressed the Y. M. C. A. is for finances. It has been a hard fight for the association to keep the men at work on our beautiful new building. Yet they have been generous enough to furnish stamps and stationery to the whole corps. First Sergeant "Red" Allen also deserves credit for his part in taking charge of the tent.
