

INFORMAL.

An interesting affair of the week was that of Mrs. A. T. Potts' on Tuesday afternoon. In a most charming way the hostess had displayed in the library many handsome pieces of handpainted china done by Mrs. Potts' mother, Mrs. Poland of Angleton. Delicious chocolate and wafers were passed to the many guests.

C. I. A. TO ATTEND FAIR.

Denton, Tex., Oct. 19.—College of Industrial Arts Day at the Dallas State Fair will be Saturday, October 31. The students and faculty will attend the fair in a body, going by special train. About 600 students, it is expected, will go and they will make their headquarters in the C. I. A. section along the north side of the coliseum. The A. & M.-Louisiana football game of the afternoon will be the big feature of the day, and under the leadership of Miss Blanche Smith, cheer leader, the C. I. A. girls are preparing to give enthusiastic support.

MRS. BLODGETT ENTERTAINS.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Frederick Blodgett entertained the Five Hundred Club in her lovely home. The guests were met at the door by the hostess' charming little daughter, Evelyn. Mrs. Blodgett was assisted by her sister, Miss Millicent Van Nortwick. At the close of the game dainty refreshments of asparagus tips on pineapple slices, olives, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

LITERARY CLUB.

At the meeting of the Embroidery Club on Saturday at Mrs. Gee's, the members decided to take up a literary course this year. Mesdames Wood, Bizzell and Reed were chosen as the committee to select the course in domestic science and to make the rules of the club. Tuesday was decided upon as the day to meet so that the ladies belonging to the other clubs might have a chance to join. To the twelve members present Mrs. Gee served lovely refreshments.
