

You Are Especially Invited

To make our store your headquarters when you come in town. Leave your grips and packages with us while you take in the sights.

This store has been College headquarters for the past 19 years. We make a specialty of catering to College trade, and carry in stock, at all times, the very latest up-to-date styles in

Young Men's Clothes, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods

You take no chances when you trade here. You are sure to find the styles right and the prices right. We make a specialty of College Pennants and carry in stock a large assortment of Pennants and Pillows of all principal schools and colleges.

A. M. Waldrop & Company
BRYAN'S BIG CLOTHING STORE

to take advantage of the chances of the game as were the Farmer players.

The bright particular stars of the game were Coleman and Garrity of A. & M. Both were featured in the Farmers- L. S. U. battle here last Thanksgiving. Coleman's open filed tackling was remarkable, and time and again he downed Rice runners before they could skirt the extremities of A. & M.'s line of scrimmage. His game was essentially a defensive one, as his line plunges were nullified by the inability of the heavy forwards to shatter the Rice defense. Then there was the wonderful kick that alone would entitle him to praise.

Johny Garrity, the Dallas boy, a veritable bundle of grit and energy, played a startling end, and it was his alert work that was responsible for two of the A. & M.'s touchdowns. Bell and Everett both did excellent work in the backfield, and Scott ran his team well and contributed his teamwork to the defensive game.

Settegat's bulk was used in the last half as a ground gaining force, big Marion being brought back of the line to plunge again and again. The big forward intercepted a forward pass at one timely moment.

The most extraordinary feature of the scrambled football presented was the number of long runs reeled off in the course of the affair. In the second quarter Scott of A. & M. got away for 35 yards and Brown of Rice 65 yards. Brown also made a 40-yard end run which was killed by an off-side play. In the third quarter Journey made a 30-yard return of a kickoff and Garrity a 30-yard run. Rice almost went the length of the field in two successive plays in the fourth quarter, Garrity making a 50-yard return of a kickoff and Brown 30 yards around end on the next play. In the same quarter Clyce returned a kickoff 35 yards and Garrity of A. & M. made a 60-yard run.

The crowd was not as large as that which witnessed Saturday's game, but was approximately about 3000, and by far the largest gallery Rice has played to in its history.

The east side of the field had been reserved as the A. & M. cheering section, and throughout the game the concerted rooting of the cadet stands was a big feature of the game. Military discipline lends itself to the development of the cheering squads and A. & M. cheering has always been the best in the State in its unanimity. The east side of the field was a banked mass of cadet blue save for a splotch of yellow where the Haskell Indians were the guests of the rooting squad.

The west grand stand contained the entire student body of Rice, the voice of whose enthusiasm could never be drowned out by the uproar of A. & M., and who were cheering their beaten players as gallantly at the close as at the first.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed, the field being fast from the Saturday rain drying out, and a good cool, crisp atmosphere exhilarating the players.

A. & M. won the toss and elected to defend the north goal. Journey made a poor kickoff at 3 sharp and Garrity's return to A. & M.'s 40-yard line began the game auspiciously for the Crimson. A. & M. rushed the ball to Rice's 30-yard line, where Garnett of the Owls recovered a fumble. The remainder of the period was fought chiefly in Rice's territory, but the ball was constantly changing hands on punts, fumbles and intercepted passes. The second quarter began in much the same style, but its course was decided when Settegat intercepted a forward pass in midfield and carried it to Rice's 35-yard line. The Farmers could not make first down and Scott punted out of bounds on the 15-yard line. On the first play Brown fumbled a bad pass and only recovered it on the 5-yard line. Journey had to kick from behind his own goal line, and the punt was blocked. An A. & M. forward recovered, but fumbled and the eager Coan snatched the ball, converting a former touchdown into a safety. Score, A. & M. 2, Rice 0.

A. & M. scored the first touchdown in a few moments. Spencer recovered a fumble on Rice's 40-yard line, and Louis Farr was laid out on the play. On the next signal Scott skirted the dazed Farr's end for 35 yards. Everett brushed over tackle for the touchdown and Coleman missed the goal. Score, A. & M. 8, Rice 0.

Within a few moments of the kickoff another fumble recovered by Spencer brought A. & M. hammering back at Rice's goal line, but the Grays tightened and regained the ball on their 17-yard line. An interchange of punts gave Rice a slight advantage, and with the ball on their own 35-yard line, Brown cross-bucked over tackle and raced 65 yards for a touchdown, Hurd kicking goal just as the half ended. Score, A. & M. 8, Rice 7.

In the third period luck aided A. & M. Forced to punt from their own 10-yard line, and Scott driving the ball only to the 45-yard line, Rice was penalized for holding, and A. & M. given the ball where the foul was committed, plus the penalty, on their 40-yard line.

And on a fresh exchange of punts Journey punted out of bounds on Rice's 40-yard line. A. & M. rushed the ball to the 30-yard line, when Coleman attempted a long forward pass. Brown batted it down on the 1-yard line, but Spencer recovered, according to the officials, before the ball touched the ground, and was downed on the 1-yard line. On the queer, "coffee-grinding" play, borrowed from the Harvard offense of last season, Bell went over the touchdown. Coleman kicked goal. Score, A. & M. 15, Rice 7.

A few moments more brought Coleman's spectacular place kick in as a factor. Punts again interchanged found A. & M. on Rice's 35-yard line and held for our down. Coleman dropped back to the 40-yard line and kicked the ball squarely from Scott's hands between the posts, though standing but a few feet from the side tory and Rice succeeded in rushing to their own 40-yard line. But there, on an attempted forward pass, Garrity tackled Brown, who fumbled. Garrity recovered and went 30 yards for the touchdown. Coleman kicked goal. A. & M. 25, Rice 7.

Early in the fourth quarter, with the ball in Rice's possession in midfield, Garrity intercepted Garnett's forward pass and raced 60 yards before being downed behind the Rice goal line. Bell kicked the goal. Score, A. & M. 32, Rice 7.

There was no further scoring and ended in much of this quarter Rice, battling furiously, fought almost up to the A. & M. goal posts twice, only to fail when within striking distance. It was a game exhibition by a battered club and merited the highest praise.—Houston Post.

CORPS MUCH COMPLIMENTED.

The conduct of the corps during the recent trip to Dallas was so unusually orderly that it attracted the attention of every one. All the authorities at the fair grounds, from the secretary to the lowest ranking janitor, had some pleasing remark to make about the manner in which the corps conducted itself. Even the street car conductors made comment on the orderliness of the corps. This speaks well for our student body and trips conducted in such a manner will make Dallas and the Fair Association all the more anxious to see us every year.

DR. ALGIE BENBOW
DENTIST

Office Over First National Bank
BRYAN, TEXAS

CHARLOTTESVILLE
WOOLEN MILLS

Charlottesville, Va.

Manufacturers of
HIGH GRADE UNIFORM CLOTHES

For Army, Navy, Letter Carriers, Police and Railroad Purposes. And the largest assortment and best quality of Cadet Greys, including those used at the United States Military Academy, at West Point and other leading military schools of the country. Prescribed and used by the

Cadets of the Agricultural and Mechanical
College of Texas

They're not short-lived
The Jerseys

In 1913 eighteen Jersey cows were officially tested which averaged 12 years and 7 months of age. Their average milk production was 8677 pounds. Average butter fat, 3.87 pounds. One of these cows was over 18 years old.

Longevity, Constitution and Economic Production are Jersey characteristics.
THE AMERICAN JERSEY CATTLE CLUB
324 W. 23d St., New York City

Hotel
Bryan

The Home of Good
Eats