Trinity University, Nov. 22.—Much interest is being manifested between the inter-class football game which is to take place early in December. The game will be the Freshmen and Juniors vs. the Sophs. and Seniors. No one is eligible to play who has been out in a uniform this season.

The Trinity and T. C. U. football teams will play on the latter's ground on Thanksgiving day. Efforts are being made to get a special train from Trinity to Fort Worth that day, but nothing definite has been done yet. It is rather doubtful if this can be done. However, many students will likely go.

Mr. Shockley, president of the T. C. U.'s Y. M. C. A., addressed the Trinity "Y" at their regular meeting on Friday. Trinity has been exchanging speakers with the associations of other colleges this year and has found it very beneficial.

College of Industrial Arts, Nov. 20.—Of the eighty-seven members of the senior class at the College of Industrial Arts this year, only thirty-three are taking the domestic art course. The others are specializing in domestic science. This goes to prove that the majority of girls still believe that "civilized man cannot live without cooks."

SOUTHWEST TEXAS CLUB HOLDS ITS FIRST REGULAR MEETING.

At a well attended meeting held last Monday evening in the president's room the members of the Southwest Texas Club decided to have a banquet in the near future.

Chas. Hauser, Geo. Welage and G. H. Russel were appointed to help the president in arranging the banquet. A swell time is assured to all members.

It was decided that the club have its picture in the Long Horn, the pictures to be taken individually and in uniform. After all business had been transacted the meeting turned into a social in which the boys became better acquainted with each other.

The club is proving very successful and the boys are taking a great deal of interest in it. The good work that is being done in bringing the boys together from this part of the state shows that a club should have been formed a long time ago. Let us hope that the good work will continue.

PLEASANTRIES.

A Novel Idea.

The girl considered him quite droll: He asked her out to take a stroll.

She said to him with puzzled grin: "No doubt you mean to take a spin?"

"N," he replied, "I mean a walk Our parents used to stroll and talk."

"The idea seems quaint," quoth she. "Perhaps some time I may agree."

Up drove a racer, long and gray, The girl jumped in and chugged away.
