

LUCID WILL COACH BASEBALL HEAVERS

two Skeelers, Gilfillan and Johnson, a Hubbard City boy of much promise, are among those who are out for this place.

The following men will try out for positions:

Pitchers—T. L. Bell, Gilfillan, Hill, Johnson, Maddox, Olsen, W. J. Skeeler, L. J. Skeeler, Smith, Sides, Wendler and Woodson.

First base—Tom Cherry, captain; Amsler, Friend, McEnroe, Sawyer, Smith, Weaver.

Second base—Crain, Burns, Francis, Kemper.

Shorstop—Beringer, Billups, Eichenberg, Evans, Haws, Rigney, Spencer.

Third base—Brailsford, Brown, Coleman, Davis, Hamilton, Minier, Prierster, Smith, Winfrey.

Catchers—Russell, Duncan, McCullom.

Outfielders—Chod, Copeland, Davis, Hooker, Judd, Kendrick, DeMontell, Matthews, C. D. Meyers, Neiland and Wooten.

With such an array of material and the coaching ability of Con C. Lucid, there is some reason for confidence, eh, Gertrude?

The schedule which has been arranged by the Hon. E. P. Menke, student manager, is one of the hardest the Agg'ies ever had to face. The games at College are exceptionally good. Texas University is scheduled for April 21 and 22.

the basement will be the swimming pool, bowling alleys and barber shop.

One the first floor of the building the general lobby with reading tables and game tables is located. The chapel, with seating accommodations for 400 persons, is also on this floor. The top story has club rooms for the Press Club, Athletic Council and similar organizations.

The principal addresses in the afternoon services, which will be held at 3 o'clock, will be delivered by Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the college; Colonel E. B. Cushing, who is president of the board of directors of the college; L. A. Coulter, State secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and J. H. Kirby of Houston, one of the big donators. Dr. H. A. Boaz, who will preach on that date, will pray. Mrs. George D. Marshall of Bryan, wife of George D. Marshall, good roads expert at the college, will sing, and Rev. Mr. Storey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will pray. These exercises will be held in the college chapel.

Sunday night at 8 o'clock President Bizzell will hold an informal reception in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A., and at 8:30 o'clock a sacred concert will be given. From 9 o'clock until 10 o'clock the building will be thrown open for inspection.

Campus citizens and residents of Bryan are invited to attend all these exercises and a full attendance of the cadets is urged.

The Y. M. C. A. building will go a long ways toward making living on the campus more pleasant for the campus people as well as for the cadets.

LOCAL QUARTET WILL SING FOR VISITORS

Music for the annual convention of the Texas State Young Men's Christian Association, which meets here February 18-21, will be furnished by the A. & M. College quartet. This quartet is composed of F. D. Steger, first tenor; R. G. Bressler, second tenor; A. C. Case, baritone, and O. S. Gray, basso. This organization sang at the summer encampment of the Y. M. C. A. last year in Arkansas and made such a "hit" that L. A. Coulter, State secretary, who is in charge of the coming convention, has asked them to serve as the official convention quartet here.

of one of the teams of experts in the Men and Religion Forward Movement, will also attend the convention and address the delegates. Other speakers are G. S. Billheimer, executive secretary of the Southwest, with headquarters in Denver; Charles G. Hurrey, senior secretary of the student department of the international committee, with headquarters in New York City; John L. Hunter, secretary of the college work in Texas, and others.

The sessions of the convention will be attended by about 300 delegates, representing the city, railroad and college Y. M. C. A. organizations. The meetings will be held in the handsome new Y. M. C. A. building at the A. & M. College, which has just been completed. This building was erected by popular subscription at an approximate cost of $75,000, and is one of the most handsome structures of its kind in the South. Some donations also were received from outside the State.

This building is one of the 788 association buildings in the United States and Canada. These structures are located in cities and at railroad points, at posts for army and navy men, and at institutions of learning. The value of association property in America is $100,000,000, of which $75,000,000 has been secured within the last twelve years.
