A. & M. FARMERS DEFEAT RICE

After Being Defeated the Day Before
by the Owls, the Farmers Come Back Strong.

SCORE 11-4

A. & M. came back in the second game with Rice Saturday afternoon and defeated them by a score of 11 to 4, thus breaking even with the Owls. The feat was accomplished by spectacular fielding and heavy hitting. The Rice boys were astonished at the way our men covered the ground and landed on their twirlers. One home run, a three-bagger, four two-base hits and nine singles is the evidence of the hitting done by A. & M.

There were more errors by both teams and the pitching was not so good as the game of the day before. But all told, the game was a fine exhibition of good baseball.

Skeeler's pitching was not a thing to be gotten into by Rice to a very great advantage. They landed on him but failed to put the ball far. Chandler made a three-base hit and scored two runs. Journeay made another with one score as the result, while McFarland made the third and last score. Cabiness and Garnett also made hits. Good fielding was done by Chandler and Betts for Rice.

Wooten pitched the first two and two-thirds innings, during which time A. & M. made eight hits and the Owls made three expensive errors. Longley then took the box and A. & M.'s hits slowed down some. Three runs and six hits were made off him. His team also furnished better backing than they did for Wooten.

A. & M. fought hard and showed excellent training; in fact, it was the hardest game Rice has seen. Hits were made when they were most needed. The best hitting was done by Powers, Cherry, Coleman and Hooker. Powers scored four hits, including a two-bagger, Cherry made a home run and a single, while Coleman made a two-bagger and put one behind the infield and in front of the outfield. Rigney was the man of the hour. As shortstop he made ten stops without an error and covered the ground well all around him. When a hit came his way the Rice rooters counted another tagged man and didn't yell.

Johnny Garrity was in the game by coaching the Rice men to root for their team. He told them how to yell and how we yelled at college in our company games even. But something seemed to be wrong with his students, for they didn't learn as fast as Johnny wanted them to. He thinks perhaps the weather had something to do with their spirits.

A MAID.

A maid there was in our town
Whose modesty was rare;
Of autumn trees she'd never speak
Because their limbs were bare.
When night its sable shadow threw,
She'd tumble in a swoon
If curtains did not hide from view
The man up in the moon.
A plumber caused her death one day,
So the story goes,
By asking in a careless way
To let him see her hose.

—P. J. McENROE.

Magician—Has this shirt pocket of yours a hole in it?

G. A. Saper—Yes, at the top.—Joke!
Haw! Haw!

THE BOY, THE COW AND THE BUMBLE BEE.

A humble boy with a shining pail
Went gaily singing down the gale,
To where a cow with brindle tail
On the clover pasture did regale.
A bumble bee did gaily sail
Over the soft and shady vale,
To where the boy with shining pail
Was milking the cow with the brindle tail.
The bee lit right on the cow's left ear;
She kicked her heels into the atmosphere,
And through the leaves of a chestnut tree,
The poor boy sailed to eternity.

—M. A. ROSE.

GAME FISH.

I like that "Fish" who takes his medicine and grins,
The "Fish" who holds not the old boys for their sins,
The "Fish" who stoops and squares his breeches to the flame;
He may be right, he may be innocent, but he's GAME.

I like the old boy, who, caught in his downward dance,
Is strong enough to match the faculty for one more chance;
The old boy who can come back, tho broken-hearted, sore and lame;
He may be strong, he may be guilty, but he's GAME.

—GYP.

Collins—I consulted the doctor today, and he advised me to quit running. He said I had an enlargement of the heart.

Fish Rogers—I told you it was a bad policy to get girls on the brain.
