

COPYRIGHT 1915
THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

TO EVERY MAN AT COLLEGE

To those who are our friends and customers, and to those who, if they knew us better, would also be our friends and customers:

To them all—our Greetings! We are now prepared to show you the most complete stock of men's wearables it has ever been our pleasure to offer. Particularly do we want to call your attention to the new models and weaves in sack suits for Spring 1915—all cut on lithe, youthful lines, and tailored in the newest fabric designs—Glen Urquhart plaids and over-plaids; gun-club checks; flannels, in blues, greens and mixes; snow flake mixtures, blendings and patternings, as becoming as ever a Spring sun beamed down upon. Prices range from $15.00 to $35.00.

LOAF WITH US

BRANDON & LAWRENCE

Call at Room 77 Milner and Inspect Samples

A. & M. FARMERS WIN AGAIN

Deaf Mutes Play a Better Game in Second Clash.

SCORE 5-3

In the second game with the Deaf Mutes from Austin last Wednesday, our boys found victory slightly more difficult to attain than it was on the preceding day. The final score was 5-3.

The pitchers for both teams were working well. Seale rivaled Olson in strike-outs. For two or three innings the batting was in one, two, three order for each team. Skeeler's big out was very effective. The surprise of the day was in the opposing pitcher. With gilt-edged support he would surely have pressed us more closely.

Thodberg made some nice catches in left field. The infield was not working perfectly, and registered several errors. The visitors' fielding was an improvement over the specimen offered in the previous game, partly due to the fact that their pitcher didn't allow the horsehide to pass from the bat to the vicinity of their hands.

The game was not as interesting as the score might indicate, for it was a foregone conclusion that victory would be ours.

The line-up:

A. and M.—
Hooker, rf.
Davies-Garrity, cf.
Russell-Coleman, c.

Cherry 1b.
Rigney, ss.
Powers, rf.
Berringer, 2b.
Thodberg, lf.
Brallsford, 3b.
Olson, p.
Skeeler, p.
Deaf Mutes—
Lampkin, cf.
Seale, p.
Jennings, ss.
Fruth 2b.
Couch, rf.
Moore, c
Webb, lf.
Hill, 1b.
Gray, 3b

	R.	E.
A. and M.	5	5
Deaf Mutes	3	2

THE CARNIVAL.

Preparations for the annual spring carnival at Kyle Field are well under way, and this year's carnival promises to be the crowning feature of the four big days late in April, the month of many events. The calendar for April this year offers an unusually large number of attractions, beginning with baseball game between Texas University and A. & M. April 21 and 22, the first day of the interscholastic track meet on April 23, the finals of the meet on the afternoon of April 24, Saturday, and the carnival, which opens at the conclusion of these finals and continues until midnight.

The social attractions are as follows: Wednesday night, April 21, Sophomore dance; Thursday night, Ross Volunteer hop; Friday night, Senior-Junior dance, and also oratorical contest and debate between representatives of Texas high schools and academies; and Saturday afternoon and night, the carnival.

At a meeting held recently Ike Ashburn, publicity agent, was re-elected president of the carnival; G. S. Saper was elected secretary, and James Sullivan, treasurer. To make all arrangements for the carnival the following committees were appointed: Tents and general arrangements, Con Lucid, A. C. Lové, Charles Davis; tickets and general finance, James Sullivan; spiellers, V. Barracco, W. K. Hanson; floor manager, E. E. McAdams; tent row attractions, F. J. Bechert, G. C. Palmer, F. J. Skeeler; music, Ocie Green; lighting, W. K. Davis and the Turpe brothers; campus donations for booths, W. K. Francis; donations for booths from Bryan, N. D. Zuber, Guy Adriaance, Earle Graham, H. H. Gammill. These committeemen were given the power of drafting as many assistants as may be needed to the end that the work may not prove too heavy for any set of men. Another meeting of these committeemen will be held this week some time, when plans for the carnival will be discussed at still greater length.

The carnival this season will be on a broader basis than heretofore as the result of departmental shows that will be offered in the tent row. The electrical engineers and chemical engineers already have planned their shows and are assembling the apparatus and equipment for attractions, that not only will amuse, but also will instruct, in a sense, and will be representative of the work of the departments. The agricultural students under the leadership of W. L. Stangle and planning a fat stock show that will be worth the money, and the C. E.'s and M. E.'s are discussing plans for a tent each.

The carnival this year will amuse and please and yet he who pays his way into the shows will get his money's worth.

Another new feature that will be given a trial this year will add materially to the "carnival spirit." At the night session of the carnival all those attending will be invited to appear in masquerade. The young women who are to come here for the activities of the week should be invited to bring along a fancy costume of some sort, and all cadets will have the privilege of appearing in masquerade. There is but one limitation set and that it is that no "rough house" stuff shall be resorted to.

All in all, it looks like this year's carnival will set a high water mark in the way of such events.

WAKE UP, FRESHMEN.

Freshmen, think of the chances
That pass you day by day,
To make some good advances
In class or work or play.

Then think of how to better
That class of old '18;
Let's stand for right and honor—
We cannot be too clean.

Stand up for all our colors,
And they will stand for you;
We want to be the beacon
To lead other classes through.

Help up some struggling classmate,
To hold his honor steady,
For he may be near to help you
When you are troubled and unready.
—"FISH" SCHUCHARDT.

"Bulls" may come and "Bulls" may go, but Sergeant Kinny stays here forever.