

WALDROP STOCK JUDGING CONTEST

ANNUAL FRESHMAN EVENTS TO BE HELD IN JUST A FEW DAYS.

TWO MEDALS TO BE GIVEN

The second annual Freshman livestock judging contest will be held in May, probably the 22nd, the date to be definitely decided on later. Mr. A. M. Waldrop of Bryan is offering a beautiful gold medal, which will become the property of the Freshman who stands highest in the contest. The Scientific Agricultural Association will present a silver medal to the man who ranks second.

The contest had its inception last year, when Mr. Waldrop offered a gold medal to be presented to the best judge of livestock in the Freshman class. Forty-five men took part in that contest, which was a most successful event from start to finish.

The class grades in Animal Husbandry 1 and Animal Husbandry 2 are made the basis of eligibility for the contest. Only one-third of the Freshmen taking these courses will be eligible to take part in the contest, being the men who have made the highest averages in their class work throughout the year. On this basis there will be about forty men in the contest this year. It was announced to all the Freshmen at the beginning of the school session last fall that their daily work would determine whether they could enter the contest, and their desire to be among those chosen has been manifested by the spirit which they have shown in their class work.

The Freshmen have been working hard all the year, and now show marked ability in selecting the most profitable types of farm animals. The official judges of the contest last year stated that the work done, both in placing the classes of stock and in giving reasons for the placings, was far above what they expected the students could do after only one year's study of the subject, and it looks as though the coming contest will fully uphold the reputation. The fact that it was very difficult to choose the men who were entitled to take part in the contest shows that everyone had learned the essential features of good livestock.

The contest will be conducted similar to the daily class work. Each contestant will be required to place several classes of livestock, and give either written or oral reasons to support his judgment. Twenty minutes will be allowed to place each class for which reasons are to be given, and fifteen for placing where no reasons are required. Fifteen minutes will be allowed for written reasons, and two minutes for oral reasons.

FARMERS AND LONGHORNS BREAK EVEN IN SERIES

Southwestern and T. C. U. are Easy Victims, but Farmers Found Stumbling Block in Baylor.

A. & M. 2, T. C. U. 0.

A. & M. won the first game on the road when the Christians were blanketed by the Aggies. The final score was 2 to 0. The game was fast and snappy all the way thru, but at no time were the Farmers in danger.

The Farmers' first score came in the fourth inning, when Beringer knocked a long two-bagger and then reached home when the Christians tried to put him out stealing third and threw the ball away. Coleman made the second run when a Christian overthrew one of the Aggies' sacrifices.

Skeeler's pitching was one of the high lights of the game. He only allowed the Christians two hits, both of them singles, and struck out twelve men. Crotty allowed five hits and the hits came when they were needed. The Farmers have a habit this year of hitting the ball when a hit means the game, and it seems to get the other team's goat. Beringer and Hooker both got two-base hits, and both hits helped the score along.

A. & M. 8, T. C. U. 6.

The Farmers walloped the Christians again Thursday by a score of 8 to 6. The game was simply a repetition of the first one. While the Christians got a goodly number of runs, they lacked the punch that characterizes the Aggies this year. The game was more loosely played than the first one. Olson replaced Skeeler in the fourth, and from then on the Christians were at our mercy. The whole team hit the ball hard and often, particularly when hits meant runs. This was the fourth and last game with T. C. U. this year, and the Farmers took all four of them.

A. & M. 0, BAYLOR 1.

In the first eleven-inning game of the season, Baylor nosed the Farmers out by a score of 1 to 0. The winning tally came in the eleventh inning as a result of two hits and an error. Skeeler never allowed a single hit in the first nine innings and deserved to win the game. It seemed to be an off day for our heavy hitters, for a run would have meant the game.

A. & M. 3, BAYLOR 4.

The Aggies were again defeated by a lone tally Saturday afternoon, Baylor getting the best of them by a score of 4 to 3. Every second it looked as tho the Farmers were about to get in the lead, but the time never seemed to materialize. The men played hard thruout the game, but the fates were not with them. Olson, Cherry, Rigney and Coleman were in the limelight most of the time. "Fannie" Coleman broke in as a pinch hitter, scoring a run and almost sewing up the game. Had our men been just a little faster on the bases there would have been a different story to tell.

A. & M. rallied from her week-end defeat and cleaned up Southwestern by a score of 6 to 1. A. & M. sewed the game up in the third inning and then just piled a few more runs on to make it interesting.

Skeeler retired ten men by the strikeout route and scattered the Southwestern hits, making them harmless. Brailsford got right in the

ANNUAL CARNIVAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

AG. DEPTS. GIVE PARADE AND ENGINEERING DEPARTMENTS
RUN SHOW BOOTHS.

ASSOCIATION CLEARS MONEY

The carnival held on Kyle Field last Saturday was a grand success, notwithstanding the fact that it had been postponed for a week and was staged under many difficulties. Great plans had been to have it while the high school visitors were at the college, but the continued rains made this impossible.

One of the features of this year's carnival was the agricultural parade. This was composed of a number of floats prepared by the different departments, together with some prize winning animals from the Animal Husbandry Department's barns.

The parade was led by the A. & M. Band. Immediately behind the band came the Queen's float—a gorgeous mass of flowers and bunting—in which was Miss Anita Park, Queen of the carnival, and her maids, Misses Deloise Hickman, Rowena Rhodes, Helen DeMaret, Aubrey Wilkerson and Mary James. Following the Queen's float was an immense basket decorated with peach blossoms and in which rode seven "Texas Peaches"—Misses Fannie Allen, Margaret Bittle, Annabel Batte, Florene Batte, Anna Locke, Lilly Bess Kyle and Elaine Bizzell.

Next in the parade was a wagon of vegetables prepared by the Sophomore horticultural students from their own plats, and a power sprayer operated by Farmer Dennis. Following this was a large float completely covered with farm crops prepared by the students of "Agony 3."

The Dairy Husbandry Department was well represented with two floats; the first a small wagon consisting of a "one horse wagon outfit," decorated with hay, old buckets, cans, etc., in which "Mrs. Perkins" was demonstrating how to use the old-time churn. The second was a large float, decorated with white and yellow bunting, and contained some modern dairy machinery in operation. "Dairyman Bruce" and "Dairymaids," Misses Bess Spence and Bess Chastain, served ice cream cones to the crowd from the rear of the float.

Last, but by no means least, was the beautiful and well arranged exhibit of the Animal Husbandry Department. Leading their exhibit was a magnificent float bearing the many trophies and loving cups won by students in the department, in which was included the big bronze bull from the International Stock Show at Chicago. The trophies were surrounded by the hundreds of ribbons won by animals from the department. Following the float came some of the
