College is essentially the people's college, and the authorities stand ready and willing to help any young man who really wants an education and who is willing, if need be, to make some sacrifice in order to accomplish his purpose.

NINETY-SIX CADETS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

THIS YEAR'S GRADUATING CLASS
IS COMPOSED OF NINETY-SIX

AGRICULTURE LEADS

The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas will send ninety-six men into the field on June 8, when diplomas are presented to that many graduates. Of that number fifty-five will graduate in the school of agriculture, three in architecture, five in chemical engineering, twelve in civil engineering, thirteen in electrical engineering, six in mechanical engineering, and two in textile engineering. Eighteen men will receive certificates in the two-year agricultural course, and three in the two-year textile engineering course.

Those who "should" graduate:
