COL. CRANE TO SELECT QUOTA FOR CAMP

Instructions Received for Picking 40 Principals and 40 Alternates.

UP TO THE COMMANDANT

Col. Crane has received directions for the appointment of the men from this college to the officers training camp to begin in January at Camp MacArthur, Waco. The quota from here will be forty principals and forty alternates. Several rules govern the appointment of these men, the selection being left entirely up to the local authorities, which will mean Col. Crane here. The matter of rank in the cadet corps has its influence, as have military appearance, physique, general fitness, etc., and the commandant is authority for the statement that the "etc" clause is quite broad and will take lots of stretching.

It is understood that the presidents of the land grant colleges of the United States, who will meet in convention November 13, are going to exert every effort to have the war department exempt all Seniors in these colleges from conscription until April and then to allow them to enter a special training camp. In case of the success of this move, several thousand men who would otherwise be compelled to leave school about

AGGIE ELEVEN ADMINISTERS STINGING DEFEAT TO L. S. U.

In First Big Game of the Season the Cadet Eleven Puts Over a 27 to 0 Victory

Several Men Out With Injuries

In their first real test of the season, the Aggie eleven beat the Louisiana Tigers Saturday at San Antonio, 27 to 0. More speed, more fight, and all round superiority won for the Texas team, which had to start out fighting against a strong wind. After the first five minutes of play, Louisiana never threatened.

As one sport writer expressed it, the A. and M. eleven gained momentum every minute. In the first few minutes the Aggies were pushed back almost to their goal line, but thanks to the excellent punting of Collins against the wind they were able to hold the Louisiana bunch. In the second period the team got stronger, and marched down the field for a touchdown. In the last half the game became almost a rout, the Aggies scoring two more touchdowns and two field goals.

Forward passes played a large part in the victory. At least they went far toward getting the first touchdown. Three passes figured in this, the last one, a 22 yard pass, putting the ball over the goal. Louisiana tried several passes, but only one, another 22 yard throw, gained them any ground. Only three other occasions did the Tigers gain 5 yards at one play. One of these was an end run for ten yards, and the other two for 8 yards each.

A crowd almost as large as the one which witnessed the State game at Kyle Field, November 15, 1915, attended the game and its sympathies were largely with the Texas eleven. 500 army men who had been in

DUMMIES MADE FOR BAYONET EXERCISE.

Under the direction of Captain Martin, some fifteen dummies have been erected on the drill field this week, and will be used hereafter in connection with bayonet instruction. This is in pursuance of Captain Martin's work in teaching the men here actual conditions of European warfare, as nearly as is possible.
