

THE BULLETINETTE

EDITOR'S NOTE.

The editors of this edition have frequently observed that The Bulletin, because of limited space has long been unable to give a complete account of college events, and when considered as a college daily, has failed to give its readers a true perspective of college life. Matters of life and death have received only the most trivial mention, and announcements of supreme importance have often gone unpublished. This proves a serious handicap to cadets, especially when students are not informed as to newly made instructions and military regulations, where a failure of observance involves grave consequences for the offender.

Realizing the need for a larger circulation of college news among the students, faculty and campus residents, the editors are devoting a section of this edition as a supplement to The Bulletin, in which is published all the more important announcements, and news of events which do not happen in A. and M. This step is taken with some hesitancy, but it is hoped that the section will meet with approbation and be of some local interest possibly, as well as beneficial to the public.

The following cadets forfeit class privileges for having received fifty per cent of their demerits, announces Col. C. J. Crane, commandant: E. E. Rigney, L. E. Priester, D. W. Howell, W. C. Wipprecht.

Formal guard mount will not be held Sunday morning.

C. Wipprecht.

General Order No. 123456789:

CHILE WITH BEANS

In the Mess Hall—Adjutant, having called the corps to attention, yells, "Cadets may leave the Mess Hall at will! REST! "Bronc" Thompson to an upperclassman, "what did he yell REST for? I am not tired yet!"

Mrs. Gunter in Sunday School class talking to "Cop" Forsythe in discussing the life of Christ, "and now Mr. Forsythe, how long did you say Jesus preached?" Cop, after thinking for a moment, very earnestly "thirty years!"

Prof. Stone in chemistry class to Fish Edmonston: "Mr. Edmonston, can you tell me whether or not cane sugar is soluble in water?" Fish Edmonston: "I don't know whether it is soluble in water or not but it is soluble in coffee!"

When your mind is delinquent—
A little bit of writing
Scribbled on the cuff
Will help a guy remember
The most important stuff.

"Fish" Nibbs has been reduced to a corporal and is now in equal rank with Corporals Wise and Persohn.

Fritz Murray, the Swiss yodler, is eagerly instructing himself in the art of dancing.

C. Wipprecht has a position with the Bryan Coffin Company for the summer. We hope he will be "wrapped up" in his job.

Messrs Braden and Looney departed last week with the Signal Corps for San Antonio. Best luck to you both.

Carl Wipprecht has gone to Austin with the Track Squad. Sergeant Smart will not have much to do Monday as there will not be many rams turned in this week.

Johnnie Wilson came from behind the bushes the other day and shaved his mustache off. Henceforth he will be in disguise at most of the dances.

Captain Hensarling: "Laughing in ranks"—is this report correct, Fish Walker?

"Yes sir, I had a hole in the bottom of my shoe and the grass tickled my feet."

Mr. Braton: "Mr. Garth, name a liquid that will not freeze."
Fish Garth: "Hot water."

Fish Dorset: "Life for me was but a desert until I met you."

Bryan Girl: "Is that the reason why you dance like a camel?"

Mr. Reynolds: "Mr. Davis, what do they raise in Sweden?"

Fish Davis: "Swedes."

Mr. Cofer recently wrote the sentence: "Them boys are sliding down hill" and requested Fish Hale to "correct and why."

Fish Hale: Correction—"Those boys are sliding down hill." "Why? "because they can't slide up."

Mr. Stone: "Mr. Twain, how could you prove that air contains carbon-dioxide?"

Fish Twain: Suck in a breath and blow your mouth thru lime water.

"In my observation of more than a quarter of a century, I have rarely known a man to be much other than what his first college year made him or left him."
—Canfield.

"In your Freshman year you are beginning life. You are not going out into the world, you have already entered the world. The question of self-mastery is not to come to you by and by it is with you at this very moment."

Xmas Fish—after listening to September Fish's recital of woes, "Oh, but theres a Disting that shapes our ends you know."

Sept: "Humph! we don't call them 'Destines' down here."

Sweet Girl Correspondent.

"George says in every letter that he doesn't get any "cush" so I am going to send him this sofa pillow today."

Johnnie Wilson said he could stand a lot of talk about his mustache, but when the little girl on the car looked up at him and called him "papa" the limit was reached.

Capt Abe Hensarling has been seen dodging around the campus several afternoons.
