

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

A new class in the Artillery unit was organized in the Bible School last Sunday. They start out with determination to lead in college activities. Companies A and C will have to look to their laurels.

We are on the last quarter in the college year, every man should make an effort to line up with some company in Bible School.

Hereafter at the preaching service a section in the airdome will be reserved for seniors and campus residents.

The Salvation Army is planning recreation huts in Chicago to take the place of the saloon. If the venture is successful there, it will be tried in other cities.

The local Y can always use current magazines. Pass them on when thru reading them.

Prof. Thomas Mayo has been secured as teacher of the famous company C Bible Class.

According to enrollment, the auto-mechanic unit has a larger per cent of its membership in Bible School than any other unit.

The Students Volunteer Conference held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, in Dallas, was a great success. Our delegates, R. R. Abicht and M. G. Snel report that about every colleg in Texas was represented. 150 delegates in attendance. Representatives from all sections of the world fresh from their fields, spoke of the great opportunities for Christian men of various callings to be of service.

F Company is never late for reveille—we have some regular alarm clocks that always go out for a little run to Leggett every morning about 20 minutes before 1st call. We are afraid they are not going to last much longer but maybe some more of these Hempstead hounds will supply us with that get-up-early-and-take-ashower- spirit.

Lon Garrett: "Say John S. can I be guide."

Our new neighbors of the crimson cords didn't seem to enjoy their first night in dear old Foster. And they had such a cordial reception too—You simply can't satisfy some people.

A couple of our Meal-Hounds were sure disappointed when Bill King said he had sold out the May Photo-play. It was a shame for it had such pretty pictures.

We just realized why "A-B" has three seats in the Mess Hall when we found that each seat is in a different row and each row gets hot cakes in turn.

F Company lost some mighty good men in the recent reorganization but we sure didn't lose all our good officers. Just look at our Second Lieutenants too. Stay right in there Tommy.

When informed that the Battery won the "Bat" contest Colonel Dougherty said that he expected that all the time.
