

A. AND M. ENROLLMENT LARGEST IN HISTORY OF COLLEGE

At 12 o'clock, October 20th, the enrollment of the various departments of the college had reached a total of 1,450—exceeding by nearly 200 the largest previous enrollment in the history of the institution. This comparison does not include the enrollment in the S.A.T.C., as that organization was not really in the hands of the College authorities, and the larger number of the students were enrolled mainly for military training.

For the first time in the history of the college the enrollment in four-year courses exceeds 1,000—the actual figures are 1,022. There are 320 students in two-year courses, 57 special students and 51 auto-mechanic students. These figures include students sent here for training by the Government, most of whom are in the two-year courses.

It is expected that another 100 Government students will be sent here during the session. Other students will enter the auto-mechanics school, and from present prospects quite a large number of old students will return after Christmas to resume their studies in the regular courses. It is safe to predict that the total enrollment for the regular session will exceed 1,600, which, added to the 1919 summer school enrollment of 1,200, will bring the grand total for the year to over 2,800 students.

It is an interesting fact that the present enrollment in A. & M. exceeds that of any other men's school south of the Mason & Dixon line; and only four or five men's schools in the North have a larger attendance.

Approximately 800 new men are included in the student body this year, nearly 500 of whom are graduates of accredited high schools.

A tabulated statement of the enrollment follows:

LONGHORN DOPE

I have been advised by the Hamersmith-Kortmeyer Printing Company that the 1919 edition of the Longhorn will be ready for shipment by the time this article goes to press. Many men have asked me when the Longhorn will arrive. To be frank with each one involved, I cannot say. Everyone will understand that the present 1920 Longhorn is being held up on the delivery of last years book and nothing in the way of launching the proposed campaign can be done until the last year book is delivered. I want everyone to understand that I am doing all I can to get the Longhorn here as soon as possible, and I would appreciate it very much if those involved would not worry me with so many questions that I cannot answer. The shipment of the book will be published in either the Bulletin or the Battalion.

In reference to this years book, I would like to say again that every man should feel like this is as much his book as anyone elses. Everyone can help the editorial and business staffs if they so choose. As one personally responsible for the business end of the 1920 book I want the co-operation of every student of this college.

Time is being assigned to each student to has his club picture made. You can help the Longhorn by being on time and not putting off this very important thing. The staff is endeavoring to have an A-1 hook this year and any suggestions as to probable artists, cartoonists, etc., will be greatly appreciated.

R.A.HARRIS,
Business Manager, 1920 Longhorn.

ARCHITECTURAL CLUB

The membership of the architectural club has increased over one hundred per cent and new members are coming in every day. The present freshman class in architecture is one of the largest in the history of the college.

Officers for the ensuing year have been elected. With Henry Fowler as president, W. T. Strange as vice president, W. L. Bradshaw as secretary and treasurer, E. W. Schiwetz as sergeant at arms, and H. L. Drelke as reporter we are sure to have the future developments of the club well taken care of.

The meetings so far have been full of pep and enthusiasm and if this interest continues the club will be one of the livliest at college.

Cain was evidently the first crop but rotation with wild oats is quite popular just now.

Has the commandant sent you a billet-doux on his cute little pink note paper Form 9? Don't feel slighted, he is quite prompt with his correspondence.
