

both goals perfectly, making the score 21 to 0.

The Trinity team began to show signs of weakness in the last quarter, failing to hold the Farmers on any play. Martin got away for a thirty-five yard gain around right end to the five yard line. The ball was promptly carried across by Mahan and the goal kicked by Alexander. Score 28 to 0. Alexander kicked off to the Trinity goal line. The Tigers were unable to make even a small gain and kicked for twenty yards. The Aggies easily made their first down and Mahan carried the ball across for another score. Alexander kicked goal giving us 35 to 0. Alexander made another pretty kick-off and the Trinity man returned it, to the ten yard line. Askeew intercepted a forward pass and on the next down Mahan made his sixth touchdown, Alexander kicked goal, giving us a total of 42 points.

The game was featured by long runs, pretty passes, and perfect punting. Our line worked well Vandervoort and Carruthers blocking three kicks. Carruthers, Drake and Wilson were very noticeable on the line.

Higginbotham and Wilson were injured during the game, but both are not in a serious condition.

For the Tigers, Duff and Wallace plays the best game. Their team was about fifteen pounds lighter per man than our team and deserves a great deal of credit for putting up a game fight.

OFFICIALS FOR TEXAS "U" GAME AGREED UPON

Officials for the Texas A. and M.—Texas "U" Thanksgiving football game have been agreed on by Directors W. L. Driver of Texas A. and M. College and L. T. Belmont of Texas University.

B. L. McCreary, an old University of Oklahoma player, who is now a resident of Kansas City, will serve as referee. Fraull Bridges of Harvard, who is now coach of the Fort Smith, Arkansas, High School, will act as umpire. Chas. Braun of Sewanee, who is now located at Waco, will be headlinesman.

Each of these men have officiated in Texas football prior to 1919. McCreary has worked in three of the last four A. and M.—Texas "U" games and always gives satisfaction to both teams. Bridges served as an official in the championship game in 1917 between Rice Institute and A. and M., and spectators will remember that he was knocked out "diving-in" after the ball. Braun has worked in a score of big games in the state in the last three years and is well and favorably known by all college men.

The selection of these three men insures that the Thanksgiving game will be handled in a competent manner.

MIDNIGHT MAIL SERVICE A GREAT HELP TO COLLEGE

Approved by President Bizzell as it Saves 12 to 24 Hours on Important Mail

The Midnight Mail Service of the College, now being run by Students "Heinie" Weir and Sam Sanders has been proving a great help to the College since the school term began, as it saves from 12 to 24 hours on important letters. This is due to the fact that letters mailed at the post office after 5:00 p. m. are not tied out, and loose mail cannot be mailed on the northbound H. & T. C. passenger train, which carries pouch mail only. Thus, letters mailed after 5:00 p. m. are forced to wait until the trains of the following day before they are started on their journey, unless mailed with the Midnight Service.

For the information of those who do not understand the service and how it is operated we give the following explanation:

A mail box is located in every hall on the Campus, with large containers on each side, in which letters are placed, with the 5 cents charged for mailing each letter. The letters are taken from each hall at 11:00 p. m. and carried to Bryan on the 11:30 p. m. interurban car, where they are mailed on the northbound H. & T. C. train at 2:13 a. m. The mail is then routed on the train by the mail clerk. Letters to Houston reach their destination at 7:10 o'clock the following morning, to Dallas at 7:50 a. m., and Austin at 8:10 a. m. These illustrations are given to show the time saved in mailing important letters with the Midnight Service.

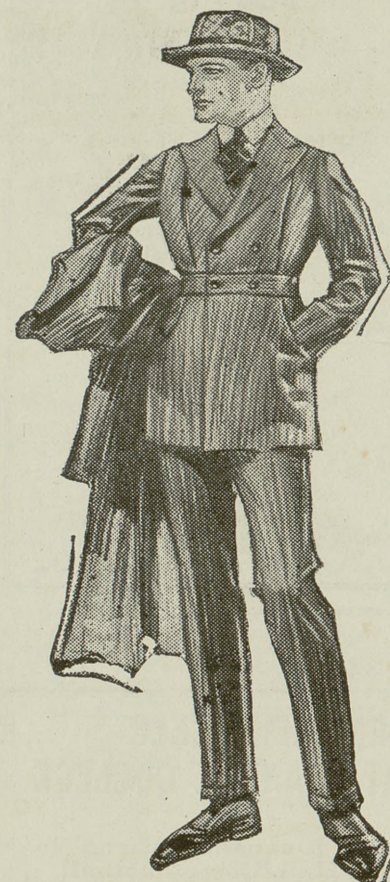

In addition to the benefit derived by the students of the College from the Midnight Mail Service, the money paid to Weir and Sanders for mailing letters, is used by them in defraying their expenses, while in school. This alone makes it a worthy project, and worthy of being patronized by their fellow-students.

The Midnight Mail Service idea originated in 1916, in the fertile brain of John "Fatty" McKnight, famous guard on A. and M. teams a few years ago. McKnight handled the service for about one session before turning it over to "Smiling" Bill Sparks, popular member of the firm of Casey & Sparks Ltd. of the "Y" Confectionery. When Sparks went to the army he released the service to Allan Rawson, a fellow-student, who after a few months turned same over to Weir and Sanders.

The service has received the approval of President W. B. Bizzell and several other officials of the College, and Weir and Sanders plan, if it is permissible, to install a box in the Main building for the use of the College officials and employees.

"Zegy" Zegarra is the first foreigner that ever made the R. V's. Yesterday we heard him say;—"I thank you boys, I am proud of it."
