

notch of the ladder of military efficiency that is going to make these other organizations around here that believe they are so good take a new hold on things or else get bumped right on out of the way. Capt. Muller admits that the Cavalry is his branch of the service; he says that it's the branch of the army that just naturally has to be mighty good to get out of things alive, so believe me it looks like the Howell trophy is going to stand a mighty good chance of getting tacked on a pole and carried in the stirrup of some dashing young trooper's saddle. And with "Catfish" Goodman at the wheel and backed by a gang of Lieuts., Serjts., Corps. and Privates such as we gazed at in The Bulletin last Saturday, who can doubt but that such a thing is highly probable? "Cat" don't claim that he got all the good men in the cadet corps, but you'll have to admit that he did pin cross sabers on some mighty good kinds and surely by the time they have had a chance to show to what an extent their branch can be developed the Cavalry is going to be a mighty desirable branch up here at this institution.

And say—how do you like the Cavalry's contribution in the way of men for the basketball squad? Forbes, Williams, Hartung, Dwyer, Ehlert, and March are not six of the sorriest basketball men I ever saw by a long shot. And nine of this troop's upper classmen are going to wear white uniforms at the R. V. this April.

So boys, shine up your guns, untangle your wireless aerials and brush up on your trig. and range finding, because equitation just comes natural to a man from Texas. The Cavalry is here to stay—and they are going to need just lots and lots of room.

PROMINENT AGGIE ALUMNUS BECOMES A BENEDICT

O. K. Johnson of 13-0 Steer Fame
Wins Wife in Canada

To the surprise of the College in general, O. K. Johnson, Senior of '17, was married January 18th to Miss Elizabeth Craft of St. John, N. B., Canada. The wedding took place in Bryan where the young couple will make their home for the present.

It will be remembered that O. K. entered the service in 1917 and upon discharge began supervision of the Johnson Construction Company's work on the Campus. At present he is directing the construction of the new M. E. and Physics buildings of the College. While in school O. K. was one of the most popular members of a popular class and was an all around college man. He engineered the famous A. and M. branding party in '17 that immortalized the famous Bevo longhorn steer, the mascot of the University.

The College community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Johnson to their midst and the students and faculty tender their most hearty congratulations.

CONFUSION CLEARED UP AS TO USE OF ANTITOXIN

Austin, Texas.—The attention of the Texas State Board of Health has been called to the confusion existing in the minds of physicians and the general public as to the nature of the product causing the unusual reactions in Dallas and a few other localities in Texas. The general impression is that Diphtheria Antitoxin was responsible. This is not the case. The material used is known in medical practice as Diphtheria Toxin-Antitoxin Mixture. This mixture is administered for the purpose of protecting against an attack of diphtheria while Diphtheria Antitoxin, an entirely different product, is administered to cure the patient after the disease has been contracted.

Regrettable as the occurrence has been, the results will be as nothing compared to what will obtain, unless the confusion is promptly corrected. If physicians refrain from using Diphtheria Antitoxin, and parents refuse to allow its use on the ground that it was responsible for the unusual reactions, such action will result in the sacrifice of many more lives and cause a great deal more suffering than occurred in the use of Diphtheria Toxin-Antitoxin Mixture.

On the ground of a broad general public health measure, an earnest appeal is being made to make it clear that Diphtheria Antitoxin was not concerned and was in no way at fault. Therefore the State Board of Health urges that the use of Diphtheria Antitoxin be not refused in any case where it is needed.

The State Board also requests that where this treatment is refused, that report of such refusal be made direct to the State Health Officer.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH RULES TO PREVENT "FLU"

Recognizing the possible danger of a recurrence of the influenza epidemic of a year ago, the State Health Officer has issued the following statement, as a warning:

"If a person has a cold, cough or sore throat, then he should stay at home, avoiding crowds at all times and especially where there is poor ventilation. If the feet get wet, or the clothing wet or damp, dry them at the earliest possible opportunity.

Spend as much time as possible out of doors and be sure that the bed-room is well ventilated. When compelled to cough or sneeze, cover the mouth and nose with a handkerchief, thus avoiding the spreading of germs among others.

In brief, keep the body as healthy as possible, for a healthy body offers a high resistance to the invasion of any disease.

Dr. Goddard stated that he thought this warning was timely inasmuch as reports from foreign countries show that the disease is again epidemic in some of these countries, and all precautions should be used to prevent the return of the disease in epidemic form in this state.

Some few cases have been reported to the State Board of Health every month since the first outbreak of last year.

To the One I Love:

What shall I do for a husband

Dearest I write to you;

Is it to be or not to be?

Marriage they say is a lottery,

But the adage is that Love is blind;

So I'll run the risk if you don't mind.

If joy to you perhaps I'll bring,

Then send me quick a diamond ring.

If the author's name you cannot guess,

Send your mail to the one you

(should) love best.

P. S.—I'll bet you a kiss you cannot guess

Who sent this proposal to your address.
