

WRESTLERS WORKING HARD.

The wrestling candidates are rounding into great form and the first intercollegiate match in the history of Texas A. and M. Athletics will be a meet at Austin on April 24th. The following men have been working faithfully under Coach Jones for the last six weeks and the improvement has been wonderful: King, Sanders, Gardner, Hilton, Maxwell, Garrison, Boone, Fletcher, Ashworth, Purdue, Roland, Miller, Smith, McLeary, Ramsey, and Kubena. The final tryout for these men will be on April 17th immediately after which time the team will be picked to go to Austin for a meet with the Longhorns the following Saturday. The tryout on the 17th in conjunction with the boxing will be held at Bryan so that Bryan people as well as the cadets will get an opportunity to see the calibre of the men who are to uphold A. and M.'s colors on the mat.

All weight classes are represented in the 15 men and it is simply a question of training and practice from now until the first meet. If conditions warrant the same, Texas University will come to A. and M. for a return engagement on May 3rd.

A YEAR AGO.

There was a time in my young life
When I could stand the constant strife
Of chasing cooties up my spine,
As in the mud I lay supine
And fought them off with tooth and toe;
Oh, how I itched a year ago!

There was a time when I could stand
To eat my sirloins neatly canned,
And drink my java from a tin
That once had antiseptics in;
How many flies, I'll never know,
Fell in my slum—a year ago!

There was a time when I'd arise
Before the dawn had touched the skies
And, ah, with what unseemly haste
I fought to get my trousers laced.
You folks at home will never know,
For that was all a year ago!

There was a time when I'd salute
And make it snappy for a "loot."
I'd cringe before a hard-boiled "top,"
Or peel potatoes for a wop
Who loved grease like an Eskimo
When on K. P. a year ago.

What I did then I won't do now,
I'm darned particular as to chow;
I get up when I dang well please
And get into my cits with ease;
I wouldn't salute my own C. O.,
For I was discharged a month ago!

WHITE SOX YANNIGANS SUPPORT SULLIVAN POORLY WHILE FAILING TO HIT.

There are games that make you happy,
There are games that make you sad
There are games that cheer the bleachers
And a few that make 'em glad;
There are games of brilliant playing
That occasionally you see,
But the best, no matter how you won it,
Is the game that's a victory.

The seven theological seminaries of Chicago report 662 students this year. This is an average of 100 per cent over last year.

LITTLE GOLD CHEVRONS

Little gold chevrons on my cuffs,
What do you mean to me?
"We to the left mean hike and drill,
Trenches and mud and heat and
chill—
And I to the right for the blood ye spill
Where the Marne runs to the sea."

Little gold chevrons on my cuffs,
What is the tale you tell?
"We to the left of the long months
spent
Where the somber seasons slowly
blent—
And I to the right, of the ragged
rent
That took so long to get well."

Little gold chevrons on my cuffs,
What do you say to me?
"That ye not trade us, master mine,
For ribbons or cross or rank, in fine
That you are ours and we are thine
Through all the years to be."
—Erwin Clarkson Garrett.

More than 400 students of the freshmen and sophomore classes of Clemson College (South Carolina) "struck" and departed on special trains, according to a press dispatch, as a protest against certain restrictions imposed on a cadet who rebelled against "kitchen police."

The girls at Milwaukee Normal School are taking an active interest in the science of "Leap Year proposals." They have leaped to the Leap Year opportunity en masse, and their study of "how to pop" may change the course of many lives. Boys—be-ware!

The University of Kansas, which has had in the past one of the most successful examples of student government, have recently voted to have two governing bodies hereafter instead of one, the two to co-ordinate as the two houses of a legislature.

The students at Dartmouth recently refused to adopt the Honor System by a vote of 578 to 436. Students at Columbia University have recently been debating this same question.
