DEAR OLD A. AND M.

While undergoing medical treatment in the Harris Sanitarium at Ft. Worth, recently, A. K. Short, Agronomist, Extension Service and an ex-student of A. and M. College, was agreeably surprised as well as pleased to have the following verses read to him by the nurse, Miss A. Cates, who was a former Home Demonstration Agent in Harrison county, Texas:

The rose nowhere bloom so white
As at dear old A. and M.
The sunshine nowhere shines so bright,
As at dear old A. and M.

The birds nowhere sing quite so sweet
And nowhere hearts so lightly beat.
For Heaven and Earth both seem to meet
Down at dear old A. and M.

The days are never quite so long
At dear old A. and M.
Nor filled so full with happy song
As at dear old A. and M.

And when my time has come to die,
Just take me back and let me lie
Close to the Campus of dear old A.
and M.

There is nowhere a land so far
As at dear old A. and M.
So full of song, so full of care
As at dear old A. and M.

And I believe that happy land
The Lord's prepared for mortal man,
Is built exactly on the plan
Of dear old A. and M.

Composed this 13th day of March, '20.
(By A. Cates, Nurse).
