

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

(Continued From Page 3)

tea-spoon. Others of the officers were real men. But the spirit of the school then was not the A. and M. spirit. It was not until after Christmas, when the S. A. T. C. men were discharged, that the college life took up its usual course. Even then the disruption caused by the war was so far-reaching in its influence that, for a time, it seemed as if the old pep would never come back. What every the fish considered a very unwise action was carried out by quartering the Sophomores in Goodwin and Bizzell. We knew then, as we know now, that the Sophomore class has more to do with the building up of the characteristic A. and M. spirit than any other class. However, the Junior Banquet came and, breaking all the restrictions, both Sophomores and Fish cut loose with the old pep. The Fish were especially annoying with their flags and slides at the picture show and terrible were the threats hurled at us. But it proved to be the awakening of A. and M., and from then on the old spirit gradually came back.

Last fall we entered as Sophomores and within a month had gathered a reputation of the hardest hitting class in years. But we were determined to make our part go—and we did. The wonderful year we have had in athletics has found its sequence in the best college spirit that has been here in years. The fish have enough pep to make working on them interesting. The whole atmosphere of the place is progressive. And we claim a large part in making it so. As a class this year we have shown, we believe, remarkable unity of purpose and action. The men who directed the fight against the Juniors know that the energy and loyalty and dependability of the Sophomores as individuals were the best in the world. We do not take to ourselves pride, but we feel that the spirit and ability and power of the Sophomore class, as a whole and individually, can not be beaten. It is for us to hold it and increase it in the two years before us, when we shall assumed places of responsibility in the College.

'22

ARE YOU ONE OF THE SIXTY PER CENT

Historical:

1. How did the Junior Banquet originate?
2. When was the military menace at its height at A. and M.?
3. What noted man once walked a race? Who was the winner?
4. Who is the General?
5. Why was A. and M. placed in this place?

Social:

1. How many Bryan girls "held the sack" during R. V.?
2. Who is the champion fancy dancer at A. and M.?
3. How much money, "jazz notes", was lost during the R. V.?
4. Can you demonstrate the proper hold on a no-handed teacup?
5. Can you correctly name all Sbisa povender?
6. Can you tabulate the sequence of forks?
7. What is the best time ever made in a prune race? Who made it?

Geographical:

1. Where is a good place to catch them?
2. Where will camp be in 1921?
3. Where is "Quality Row"?
4. What is the safest route to Bryan when one hasn't a pass?

Current Events:

1. How many days, hours and minutes?
2. How do you beat your railroad fare home?

Entertain
Your Friends and Visitors

at

Hotel
Bryan

Jas. W. James

Real Estate

PHONES 45 - 498

Bryan, Texas