

EXPENSIVE BUT WORTH IT

NOTE:
THIS SNAP-SHOT WAS TAKEN LAST SATURDAY EVENING
AFTER MUCH MANEUVERING.

NASCHKE

EMPHATICALLY TO THE GOVERNOR OF MY DREAMS.

(A single innocent Sophomore was the victim of this vampire. His efforts to locate her were in vain. Accordingly, he requested The Battalion to publish this and hopes thereby to locate the elusive lady.)

Dear and Most Beloved Sir:

I send you this, your love to stir;
'Tis you I've chosen first of all
On whom to make my Leap Year
Call;
I've given you the foremost chance,
A home for you I will enhance,
Your heart and hand I ask, not in jest.
And I hope you'll grant my fond request,
And send me back without delay,
Your answer whether yea or nay,
But if your hand does not incline
In wedlock, clasped in pain, in mine;
Then you must the leap year law
obey
And down to me five dollars pay.
Besides, kind sir, a handsome dress;
I ask no more, I take no less.
Now you may find this missive funny
But I MUST have a man or money—
If you think I am a dandy,
Send to me five pounds of candy.
If the writer's name you guess
Send this back to her address,
If for me there is no hope,
Send me then five yards of rope!!!!
ALAS??

Bill King says that money can't buy the rabbit foot that he had in his pocket the night before the Banquet.

T. U. Soph: "Speaking of facial characteristics, do you know that I was once taken for Ty Cobb."

Rice Soph: "And a man once took me for the Kaiser."

A. and M. Soph: "That's nothing, a few weeks ago I met an old friend of mine in the country and he said, 'Holy Moses, is that you?'"

The First Electrician.

Fish E. E.—"Wasn't Franklin the first electrician?"

Junior E. E. Sarcastically.—"No, Edison was."

Soph. E. E.—"You're both wrong; Noah was the first electrician. Didn't he make the ark light on Mount Ararat."

Prof. Thomas in English: "Mr. Davis, tell us the fault in the following sentence: 'Having thus considered the structural elements best suited to the construction of small boats, a poins may be noted.'"

C. H. Davis (in his own original way): "Well, Mr. Thomas, you need someone up there to do the 'Having.'"

It is nice to sleep on "enlivened" single-beds; but it is nicer to sleep in pup-tents? Ask the Signal Corps.

Juniors, watch your president for Jack is not only getting bald-headed but is also buying candy for the girls. And boys, he was so happy after seeing that little girl that he forgot Dallas had street cars and walked two miles back to the hotel.

What are we going to call this new-fangled sport which takes place in the chapel every time programs are donated?

With a few more concerts we should be able to compete with any second grade pupil in the art of sailing "air-ships."
