

A. & M. DRAMATIC CLUB CLOSES THE SEASON IN BRYAN

The Last Appearance of "Kitty" Shows High Point of Efficiency of the Cast.

The A. and M. Dramatic Club closed its short spring season with a performance in Bryan Tuesday night. Although the house was as large a one as College attractions usually get in Bryan, it was the smallest crowd to which the cast has played. But it was a live and appreciative audience, and the cast with their usual spirit of good sportsmanship determined to put their very best effort into their acting. The result was a happy evening for everybody. The laughter and applause of the audience helped the cast and the acting of the cast helped on the laughter and applause, and there followed a fine demonstration of the fact that where two or three hundred are gathered together, much merriment may ensue. Before the second act was reached nearly everyone had forgotten himself and laughed right out in church!

For so young an organization, the dramatic club has met with unusual success. This has been due in large measure to the unflagging efforts of the talented young ladies who have given so much of their time to the work. Miss Nova Lovelle, secretary to Dean Kyle, and Miss Lois Pipkin, Assistant Registrar of the College, have proved invaluable assets to the club and an honor to the college, while Miss Ninon Collins of the Extension Department, deserves high praise for the graceful proficiency with which she took up the part of Aunt Jane on short notice. The Misses Jessie-Kate Lyons and Louise Pipkin have also proved of great assistance in the less laborious part of Suzette.

The men of the cast C. W. Thomas, J. W. Mayo, Paul Cretien, M. Tom Harrington, and P. H. Bimmerman have not only won repeated honors for their acting but have shown a spirit of loyalty and devotion to their work and to the best interests of the College which no aggregation could surpass. The untiring efforts and skill of the Business Manager, Mr. P. H. Bimmerman, have assured the financial success of the undertaking. The work of the producing staff, including in its number Messrs. R. C. Clarke, H. G. Bimmerman, C. J. Finney, Franke, and others deserves the very highest credit, while the College Five with their popular music have put life into every performance. The fact that L. H. Friedlander and W. E. Winn are the first and last men seen by the audience is enough to show
