

THE BATTLE HYMN OF A. & M.

Hullabaloo, caneck, caneck,
 Hullabaloo, caneck, caneck,
 Goodbye to Texas University;
 So long to the Orange and the White;
 Good luck to the dear old Texas Aggies,
 They are the boys who have the real old fight!
 "The eyes of Texas are upon you",
 That is the song they sing so well.
 Goodbye to Texas University,
 We're going to beat you all to——
 Chigaroorimm, Chigaroorimm,
 Rough stuff, real stuff, Texas A. and M.

The tune and words of this new song of battle were originated by "Pinkey" Wilson, ex-'20, while doing guard duty on the Rhine. Learn It!

CAPTAIN TUTTLE NOW IN REGULAR ARMY

Captain Albert L. Tuttle, Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics, has been notified by the War Department that his status has ceased as a temporary officer and that he is now a Captain in the regular establishment.

This information probably means that Captain Tuttle will remain at this institution in his present capacity which will be welcome news to the cadets, especially those in the Infantry branch. Captain Tuttle is a favorite officer among the students and he probably knows more cadets by name than any other one man connected with the College.

He seems to have every man accurately placed in his mind, knowing his complete college history, faults and good characteristics. With his fund of information he naturally attracts the friendship of cadets and their respect for him is the very highest.

Captain Tuttle has been heard to say that he desires to remain on this assignment for at least sufficient time to see the class of '22, which he taught last year, graduate.

Instinctive Action.

Did you ever notice this,
 When a fellow steals a kiss
 From the righteous little maiden calm and meek,
 How her spiritual training shows
 Not in the turning up her nose,
 But simply turning around the other cheek?

"Tanlac" Strange spends forty-five minutes examining leather puttees and then buys lead pencil. The maroon sweater was in the foreground.
