S.M.U. PUTS UP HARD BATTLE AT DALLAS FAIR

Aggies Win By Low Margin of 3-0 -Mahan and Kitts Are the Stars.

The game against Southern Methodist University at the State Fair last Saturday was a fight from start to Never was the game secure until that old last whistle had blown Southern Methodist University was bound and determined to score or A. and M. and A. and M. was mor. than determined that the scoreles record of her opponents should not be broken. On the other hand it was a very difficult thing for A. and M. to get within striking distance of the S. M. U. goal. The five thousand folks at the game saw as good a game of defensive football as they ever need to see.

The first half was used in trying to find weak spots and what plays would work. Nothing seeming particularly successful most of the time was spent in booting the ball back and forth, early becoming very large ly a kicker's battle.

The only scoring of the whole game came in the third quarter. After a gain thru a series of punts and thru the line the ball was carried by A. and M. to the S. M. U. twent; yard line. And from this place s perfect kick for field goal was made. The fourth quarter like the first two was scoreless

The afternoon was warm and that slowed the game down some but the fact is, the whole game was just naturally a little bit slow. The game did not lack in excitement for hairraising plays followed each other in rapid succession thruout the whole game and never was the game safe. Neither team seemed to work like a piece of well oiled machinery; there was carbon in the cylinders, the mo-

Great Exhibition of Football-Teams Well Matched— First 0-0 Game On Kyle Field.

Texas A. and M. and Louisiana State University battled to a scoreless tie on Kyle Field yesterday afternoon. On a field that was slow from the rains of the previous night the Texas Aggies failed to score on the Tigers. The Aggies were on the offensive throughout the game. They had one chance to score in the first half when a blocked punt was recovered on L.S. U.'s twenty yard line. This failed, however, when A. and M'.s attempt to pass went over the goal line. The Aggies also missed two trials for field goals in the last few minutes of play. Higginbotham kicked twice, once from the fifteen yard line and once from a distance of thirty yards. Both kicks went to the left of the goal post.

L. S. U. missed her chance for a score when she elected to try for a A. will head the party. Cadet Colonel free kick after a fair catch on the
