FIRST FISH BANQUET BY "A" COMPANY INF.

from the heart and regret at his departure showed on every face.

Alternately between the punch, ice cream and cigars came the thanks of the upper-classes, and as the blue smoke deepened and the quiet of satiation fell upon everyone, Toastmaster Brown brought the banquet to a close with fifteen roof-lifting cheers for Captain Reed and Company A.

LIEUTENANT J. D. BROWN, '16, TO WED.

(From the Chicago Tribune, January 12, 1921).

Prof. and Mrs. W. D. MacClintock, of the Chicago University, announce the engagement of their daughter, Hilda, to First Lieutenant James D. Brown, 39th Infantry. The wedding will take place early in February at Prof. MacClintock's home, 5629 University Avenue, Chicago.—Chicago Tribune.

Lt. Brown is a graduate of the A. and M. College, receiving his B. S. degree in Architecture, class of '16. For the past three years he has been on foreign service in the Philippine Islands and with the A. E. F. Siberia. While with the Siberian Forces he met Miss MacClintock, who was then Secretary for the Red Cross Commission to Siberia. Miss MacClintock's father, W. D. MacClintock, is professor of English at the Chicago University.

Miss MacClintock is a graduate of the Chicago University.

Lieut. Brown is now on leave of absence for two months and after about two weeks visit at College and his home in Rockport, Texas, will return to Chicago where he will be married early in February, making a trip to San Francisco where he and his bride will spend about two weeks.

Upon expiration of leave, Lieut. Brown will be stationed at Camp Lewis, Washington, where he is assigned to the 39th Infantry.

GENERAL REPORT.

For loitering in vicinity of the Exchange Store and being so preoccupied as to permit his side arms to be removed without his knowledge, Cadet Capt. Blumenthal, C., officer of the day, is confined to the limits of common sense and will kindly refrain from visiting the Exchange Store or other places of attractions until further notice.

Signed,
IMA CHASER, Coordinator.

HUNDREDS OF BOYS ARE COMING FOR CONFERENCE

det corps in military parade on the drill ground.

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock under the guidance of W. B. Cook, boys work specialist of the Extension Service and George Long, director of exhibits, the boys in delegations of fifty will inspect the college campus, farms and buildings.

At 5 o'clock Major W. H. H. Morris will have the boys go through a calisthenic drill and direct them in games played by groups.

At 7:30 o'clock the delegation will attend a banquet in the Mess Hall annex as the guests of the college. The Aggieland Jazzland Six will supply music during the repast. An address will be delivered. And immediately following this a complimentary picture show will be given in the Airdome.

Everyone will attend Sunday School Sunday morning following special meetings by various groups. The boys will attend classes with the cadets.

Following Sunday School Dr. Charles Seelman pastor of the First Methodist church of Dallas will deliver the convocation address.

The closing session of the conference will begin at 7:30 and close at 9 o'clock Sunday night.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday night the delegates will stand in formation in front of the Main Building and salute the flag as it is lowered.

Each morning before breakfast the boys will take setting-up exercises under direction of a cadet officer. They will take their meals in the Mess Hall immediately after the student body is served.

W. H. Matthews will have charge of the music for all the sessions. The A. and M. orchestra, band and singers from both Bryan and College have promised to assist in providing music for all occasions.

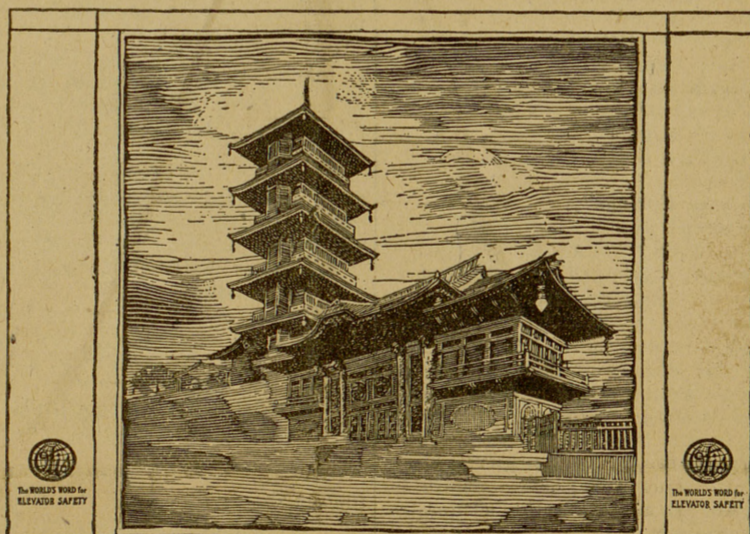

Speakers for the general sessions will include B. V. Edworthy, state boys' work secretary for Texas; H. P. Demand, regional boys' work secretary for the West; Wm. Adams Brown, International Sunday school expert from New York; A. N. Cotton, boys' work secretary of Hidalgo county; W. D. Blair, boys' work secretary of Houston; Walter D. Thomas, boys' work secretary of El Paso; J. Floyd Smith, boys' work secretary, San Antonio and others.

One of the most important features of the general program is an elaborate and extensive exhibit to visualize to the boys the organization and club work. This will be in charge of a committee composed of George Long, W. B. Cook and Secretary J. E. Lewis. It will occupy the entire second floor of the Y. M. C. A. building.

Whiz Bangs.

Her death was so sudden,
Her death was so sad
She gave up her life
'Twas all that she had.

She now lies sleeping silently,
'Neath a willowing bough.
There's always something stirring,
When a freight train hits a cow.

JAPANESE TOWER
CHATEAU DE LOEKEN, BRUSSELS, BELGIUM
Equipped with Otis Elevators

THIS is part of the summer home of Leopold the Second, late King of the Belgians. It stands in the Royal Parc of the Chateau de Loeken, suburb of Brussels.

In the homes and palaces of kings; in the public buildings that peasants use; in the gigantic temples of commerce; in countries of eternal sunshine or those where nights are months long—everywhere the Otis organization stretches out its hand to provide vertical transportation.

A circle embracing Otis activities would circumscribe the earth, for world service is the aim of Otis.
