QUINTETTE WINS SERIES FROM RICE OWL FIVE

First Game 20-19; Second 35-17; Aggies Only Undefeated Team in the Conference.

Arriving at the auditorium at 8:10 the Aggie team took the court immediately. They went through some light running and passing up and down the court and then practiced at putting the ball through the hoop. Rice was easily superior at practice.

Then started the third of the tightest games ever played by these institutions. Only this time A. and M. came out on top with a clean victory for there was about two minutes more to play and no further scoring.

The floor was very slick which made the game appear very rough on the part of both teams. It also slowed up the affair considerably.

Megarrity was the first Aggie to draw blood after a lot of scrimmaging. After this the scoring dragged along and the first half ended with a score of 10-7 favor of the Owls.

In the second half "Hoots" replaced "Floppy" and Dwyer dribbled the ball down the length of the court through the entire Rice team for a goal. The score was tied and passed by the Owls three times in the second half but the Aggies each time came from behind and tied the score.

At this point McKean, Rice guard, fouled and "Todda" shot a pretty free goal which gave A. and M. the victory for there was no other scoring.

Even though a bit off form, Forbes and Dwyer played a sensational game. The other men showed up well; especially Ehler.

The yelling of about 35 A. and M. men and alumni was great. It rivaled the cheering section of the entire Rice Institute. Aggies could be seen assembling from all parts of the building at the first battle cry.

Second Game.
The same two teams met at the auditorium Saturday night with Rice determined to win their second game with the Aggies. However, this was not to be done for though fighting like mad, the Aggies were right and as the game went on, became stronger and stronger.

The floor had been roughened and the game was much faster than the night preceding. Forbes was up to snuff as was the rest of the team which played a whirlwind game.

The first half ended with the Aggies in favor to the tune of 16-10, and from then on out it was smooth sailing. Rice had many opportunities to score but could not find the basket.

The guards would interfere with their accuracy every time. They tried frequent long shots but failed.

The Aggies played rings around their opponents and showed better team work and training than did the Owls. The Aggies scored 19 points to Rice's 7 in the second half.

Both teams put up a game fight with sportsmanship showing throughout the game.

Dwyer was the star of the game with his guarding and scoring, making six of the 14 field goals. "Todda" made five field goals and six out of eight tries at free goals. "Hoots" Williams was all over the court and at the Owls at all times. "Dutch" Ehler rung up 3 goals from difficult angles while "Floppy" Hartung dealt the Owls misery all the time with his usual aggressiveness.

Game ended 35-17 favor Aggies. The A. and M. Band was present for this last game of the series and brought the Aggie spirit with them.

The Casuals and the 2nd Battalion Are to Play For Championship of Corps Sunday.

In a game that promises to be the greatest exhibition of company football in many a day the Casuals and the Second Battalion Infantry, are to battle for the championship of the College. The game is to be played on next Sunday afternoon and interest is running high in the school and every cadet is lining himself up with the Second Battalion and the Casuals still say that the team they support can't be beaten which remains to be seen in the coming game. The Second Battalion will enter the contest with the odds in their favor. They have suffered very few injuries during their season and they will more than likely start the game Sunday with the same line-up that was used so effectively against the Casuals in the last battle.

The Casuals, however, have suffered severely from injuries. Early in the season they lost Simpson who was a main stay in the back field and who no doubt would have made an all company position. In the game last Thursday Jack Ferguson, Bennie Baskin and Sullivan all suffered injuries that will keep them out of the game Sunday and it looks now that the Casual coach will confront a problem in finding enough men to start the contest. But the Casuals with all this starting them in the face promise to give their best and should they lose the sweaters the winners will know they have been through a hard winter. The Second Battalion has the advantage now but will they still have it Sunday? That question will be answered when the two teams clash for the last time.

CHANCES ARE NOW OPEN FOR NEW MATMEN

Bantamweights Needed for Squad—New Candidates in All Weights Will Be Coached.

Progress in the work of the wrestling squad is improving is the announcement of Coach Jones.

The number of men reporting for workouts has been increasing since the opening of the new term and enthusiasm is coming back to the old mark set in the first novice meet. Owing to minor injuries to some of the old men, many openings will be made for new entries in the next novice meet and all men who wish to learn something about mat work are encouraged to come out. The bantamweight is now open owing to the sickness of Clark and his absence is keenly felt. Any men who weigh in the neighborhood of 120 or 122 pounds are urged to come out at 4 o'clock and learn the principal rolls and positions.

The following are working out at present:

Coach Jones is offering every man who desires coaching in wrestling an opportunity to come out at this late date. It is urged that every man who has the time and cares for mat work report. Experience and scientific knowledge of wrestling is not required. Wrestling is fast becoming an important sport at A. and M. and it is desired to see the squad increase to the maximum number.

WHY NOT A FEW BIG LEAGUE TEAMS TO PLAY HERE IN THE SPRING?

This year Texas boasts of many big league teams training in her great state and a few of them are in the close proximity of College Station. We have New York and Detroit working out at San Antonio, Cleveland at Waxahachie, Boston at Galveston, Philadelphia at Orange, and Cincinnati at Cisco, but even with all these so close, still we do not find A. and M. on any of their schedules, but we do find the University booked up with a few of them, and they are in no better position to play them than we are.

Last year the St. Louis and Philadelphia teams played here and drew well, how much better would they draw if they had played a local team, such as our Aggie nine, is a question that can only be answered by trial. One thing we do know it that they would draw no smaller crowd. Of course these teams had a guarantee, made good by the Bryan Chamber of Commerce which was some inducement to their making a stop off here. Would it not be possible to get the Chamber of Commerce to back us to some extent if such a thing is necessary, in the event it could be arranged to bring such teams here for a game?

It would mean advertisement for the College, as well as the city of Bryan, such as it can not buy, for reports of the game would be in the largest papers of the country, and with the report would go news of the Agricultural and Mechanical College in Texas and the prowess of its teams, thus bringing it before the eyes of the public, for each team carries its staff of reporters. So as an advertising scheme alone it would prove beneficial, much less, to say a source of pleasure and entertainment to the cadet corps and the people of Bryan and the surrounding country.

If anything is to be done in this regard it should be done at once as most of the majors have no doubt completed their spring schedules. Those teams that could not be induced to make a special trip here might be made to stop off here on their way north, and the guarantee required by them in the long run would not be too great for the Athletic Department to withstand, as is generally thought. Instances have been known where such teams as these have played for guarantees of from $200 to $300 when they stop off at a convenient place, such as College. The University procures them for about this much every year, with the addition of a percentage of the gate receipts, and A. and M. with the backing of the city of Bryan should be able to do as well.

The cadet corp as a whole would like to see such games on the A. and M. schedule, if for no other reason than to see the big league stars in action, and to see how our teams would stack up against them. It would be a golden opportunity for many students to see the men whom they have read about every day and followed thru the seasons performing on their own diamond and to talk about how they performed when they return home in the summer. How many of us would like to see such notables as McGraw, Hughie Jennings, Ty Cobb, Veach, Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker and other luminaries covarting around on Kyle Field?

It might be possible that such games could not be arranged this late in the season but it must not be forgotten that we were offered such games and turned them down, thinking perhaps that it would require too much capital or backing to finance one. The above thoughts are offered as a constructive suggestion that might be borne in mind next year when the Majors are making out their spring schedules, it is too late to get them to stop off here this year.

LEAGUE LEADERS STAGE A SCORELESS TIE.

The best gridiron classic of the inter-company football season was staged Thursday on Kyle Field when the Gold Brickers played the fighting Aggregation of the Second Battalion to a scoreless tie. In the first period Miller heaved a beautiful 40 yard pass, but Real's arms lacked the necessary molasses. Near the end of the second quarter, Riggs returned McMillan's for a 40 yard gain, and Scofield added eight more on a short end run, making it the Doughboy's ball on Casual's own six yard line. Four futile attempts to shove it over netted them only four yards and time was up.

The second stage of the game found the Casuals playing more consistently, but the absence of Ferguson and McMillan in the backfield were telling effects on the Sons of Rest offensive. McMillan was forced to retire early in the game on account of a hard one on the head, Ferguson suffered a broken leg, and "Bennie" Baskin a fractured arm.

The open field runs of Riggs and the defensive playing of Phocian Park were the outstanding features of the contest. Harry Pinson for the Cadets proved to be a consistent ground gainer and looked like a veteran in the making. Denny and Fish "Red" of the Casuals and Patillo and Carroll of the Infantrymen stood out above all others in roles of linemen. These same teams met again Sunday, and inasmuch as all other games are forfeited to these respective teams, the winner of this contest is the undefeated Championship team and will receive the prized sweaters given by the Athletic Council.

If the University moves we are going to follow suit. Where? Come on, Girls, with one accord—COLLEGE STATION!

The only trouble with that arrangement would be that the town would not be able to hold us! I say not!
