Moral: More Bull, More Mail.

The teams representing Oklahoma A. and M. and Oklahoma University staged a closely contested engagement with a 6-0 resultant in favor of the latter. Shoul Maulbetsch and his Stillwater crew connected up better with their passes, we would have suggested to Bennie Owen that he change his team's slogan from "Sooners" to "Laterers."

promising new material, the nucleus of which this and future teams are built.

Preliminary Meet Saturday.

It is the intention of the newly-acquired cross country mentor to stage a preliminary meet Saturday afternoon in order to obtain a better line on the men. This meeting alone will prove interesting and a sensation to track fans, as will give the Aggie fans a definite bearing on the long distance running ability of our men.

If present plans are matured, the first dual meet will probably be held in connection of the Oklahoma-A. and M. game. This will give the Farmers the much needed experience as well as acquaint them with the course to be run at the Southwestern Conference Meet held in connection with the annual Turkey Day encounter with the Longhorns.

We are glad to see this form of fall track come into the athletic realm here as it not only interests a multitude of fans, but serves also as a great developer for distance men for the Spring season.

Sunday evening every Methodist on the campus and those who wish to hear an interesting program are invited to meet in the lecture room of the Electrical Engineering Building at 7 p. m. Come out and meet those of your faith. Enjoy an hour of the kind of worship you were used to back home.

The Methodist Orchestra will be on hand with good selections. "Missions in Brazil" will be the subject of the Campus People's Program. Rev. King Vivion will talk on "Man." You may be sure that his talk will be worth your while for a man will deliver it. Let's all pull together and make these meetings a part of our program.
