OMAHA BLANKED BY AGGIES IN BIG TIME THRILLER

left and "Unk" hurried home with the score that won the contest. Dwyer went to second on the throw to the plate but Dinan went out short to

One to nothing games are not generally supposed to be so very interesting from the spectator's point of view but this one was certainly an exception. Both teams had runners in position to score several times but Dwyer was the only man to deliver the needed safety. Omaha got light hits which were distributed in pairs four but throughout the first, fifth, sixth, and seventh innings. Things looksd somewhat ticklish for the collegians in each of these periods but on each oc-casion Olsen and his support were superior to their threatened offense.

Both clubs played a great defensive game. Only one error was recorded the whole afternoon and that came in the ninth and was close. The pret-tiest part of the visitors work was probably done by their pitchers, Wigington and Stokes. Practically the entire Aggie nine played a fast brand The work of the battery, Olsen and Crawford, was indeed beautiful to watch. The big "Swede" work Monday made seventeen consec utive scoreless innings for him against class "A" professionals. Crawford worked like a demon as usual and gave his battery mate "something to throw at." Olsen's three strikeouts in the last innings show that he still had command of his curve and fast ones. His control was also excellent. The whole Aggie infield had glory galore. Dwyer probably gets the largest portion as he accepted thirteen chances at the initial bag and got two hits, one of which brought home the necessary tally. Smith at third made the banner play of the game when he raced through the crowd and back of the bleachers to catch a foul off Wilcox. He ran out of the sight of "Umps" Bible, though, and the play did not count. He came back, however and caught another a few seconds later that did count. During the entire battle "Smitty" handled the hot corner in great style.
