

A FLAPPER'S PRAYER.

I want the lights that brightly shine,
 I want the men, I want the wine,
 I want the fun without the price,
 I want to be naughty and still be nice.
 I want the thrill and the long drawn kiss,
 I want the things that nice girls miss,
 I want the arms and heart of a man And still be single—If I can;
 What I want is some good advice On "How to be naughty and still be nice.

—Miss E. A. L. Vasser College

You may have the lights that brightly shine,
 You may have the men, and too the wine,
 You may have the fun if you Pay the Price;
 You can't be naughty and still be nice.
 You may have the thrills and the long-drawn kiss, But you'll taste the dregs that the nice girls miss,
 You may get the arms—Not the heart of a man And yet stay single—If you can;
 You'd better take some good advice On not being naughty, but just plain nice.

—Ken

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

We, the members of the Ft. Worth Club, submit the following resolutions on the death of E. B. Pumphrey, club member and fellow student.

Whereas, in His infinite wisdom it has pleased the good Father to call unto Him our companion Elsworth Pumphrey,

Therefore be it resolved by the members of the Fort Worth Club that our deepest and most heartfelt sympathies and condolence be offered to the family of Mr. Pumphrey.

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to his family and relatives, and that a copy be furnished The Battalion, The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and The Fort Worth Record.

Signed:

E. H. MOORE, President,
 L. H. CLAY, Vice-President,
 VICTOR LeMAY, Secretary.

Mail's crowd today—I'm overloaded so I can hardly walk, said the postman.

"What's all the excitement?" we inquired.

"Correspondence school is having a rally and is mailing a bonfire to each student."

—Missouri Miner.
