AGGIE DOPE

BY
DEDE

THE TEXAS AGGIESTHE FOURTH CONSECUTIVE BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS OF THE SOUTH-WEST.

“Rattler” Hardman almost broke out in Bryan society Saturday night, but he got things mixed up and he held the “sack.”

THE JUNIOR TOASTMASTER WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN THIS COLUMN IN THE NEAR FUTURE —HARK! YE SOPHOMORES!

For our prospects for next year we LOSE two men: Captain “Tiny” Keen and “Slimy” Megarity and probably the Assistant Coach, “Hooty” Williams. Its going to be hard going to fill the positions of these two wonder players but is must be done.

“Love—a kind of inarticulate, unfathomable speech, which leads us to the edge of the infinite, and lets us for moments gaze into that.”—Doc Schmidt.

About fifty “Fish” basballers reported out for the first practice and now there are more players than there are places to practice but Coach House will handle them and any others who have intentions of coming out.

We are not going to explode a lot of dope on our baseball expectations for this season but we do know we have the most reliable coach any team can have and sincerest fighting crew that ever went out for a team here. Naturally good results will follow.

We have another team that we seldom hear of and that is the Junior Stock Judging Team that has been working late and hard to bring back the Swift & Co., loving cup—the contest will be between Oklahoma A. and M. and Texas Aggies. Whichever team wins it this time gets to keep it —stay in there Juniors, we need that trophy.

Ferguson Bros. Stock Company and the eight Spanish Troubadours at the Palace for three days, begining Thursday.—Adv.
