FISH WIN FIRST START.

After playing through three scoreless quarters, the AggieLand Fish team returned home triumphant from Marlin, Friday, trouncing the Marlin High lads by a score of 7 to 0.

The team which represented the fish was picked at random from a squad of approximately 50 men by Coach Frank Anderson, and they had had only one day of practice together.

Askey carried the ball over for the touchdown. Dansby kicked the goal. Ford at guard and Marshall at full-back starred as did Dansby.

Marlin High stars were Russell, Bartlett, Summer and Pyland.

AGGIES OFFER SUPPORT.

Beaumont, Texas, Sept. 29.

The Texas A. and M. Club here voted this week to support the Texas-Tulane game on October 13, whole-heartedly. Plans were begun for cooperating with officials of both schools in completing arrangements.

DALLAS TRIP CONTEMPLATED WITH OPTIMISM spine chills, the college infirmary should serve as his rendezvous.

Rates are cheap, meals almost free—one dollar takes you to the game, and the Aggies are fighting like soldiers at war.

What more could you want said than another maxim

Which is doubtlessly true, Agg's! Oh, Aggies! Dallas is calling, YES! ANXIOUSLY CALLING TO YOU!

Properly Prepared.

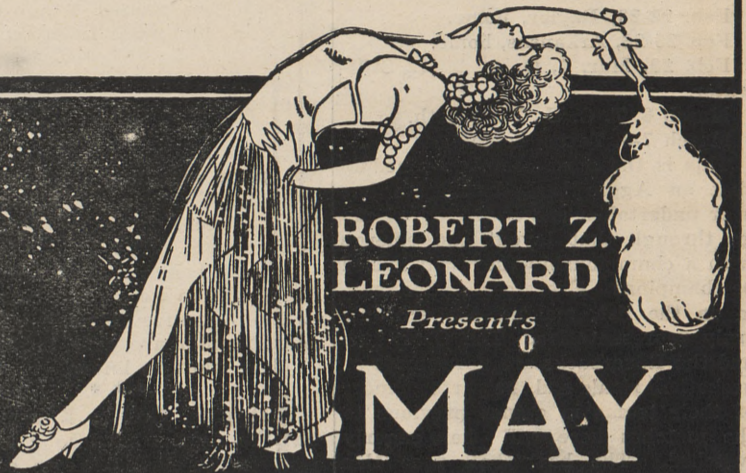

Teacher—"What became of the swine that had the evil spirit cast 'nto them?"

R. Dieter—"They made them into deviled ham."—Steele's Lion (Dayton).

Our next song will be—"She had hives, and he called her honey."

Mr. Jenkins: "Edith, didn't I ask you a week ago to oil those casters? They creak something awful."

Edith: "I know you did, but there is not a drop of castor oil in the house."—London Answers.

I hear Charlie is going to take up a vocational training course.

Charlie? Why that goof couldn't learn to sing in a hundred years.
